NAMER

The 1957 Namer—

All hail Holy Name,
With loyal hearts we proclaim,
That we will serve the Green and White.
Your spirit we know,
Will lead us on as we go,
And guide our youthful steps aright.
Then down through the years,
We will re-echo your cheers,
And through our efforts bring you fame;
For though it be our best,
It's not too good
For dear old Holy Name!

Holy Name is a coeducational
high school.
Faculty members are the Diocesan Clergy,
The Sisters of Charity
of Cincinnati, Ohio
and Lay Faculty.

Our Priests . . . . . Who Offer, for us,

Rev. James E. Hughes

Young men are ordained to the priesthood to offer Sacrifice, to instruct the faithful, and to administer the sacraments.

Fortunate are the Holy Name students who have the privilege of attending the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass each Friday as a corporate unit. It is possible for them to attend Mass each morning before they come to school, if they so wish.

From "Life's early morning" until its close, Catholics need the ministration of God's Priests.

New to Holy Name since last June, Father Mrakuzic teaches the senior Religion classes.

His introduction to Holy Name was as chairman of the Annual Bazaar. In this work, Father became better acquainted with Namers and Namers with him.

Father Hughes is continuously striving to bring to Holy Name the honor that is due her by his active participation as Athletic Director, sophomore instructor, and by his work in the Girls' Sodality.

Father Hughes gives the athletes a special blessing before each football and basketball game and goes to the Church with them after the game is over. He reminds them that they must live their Catholic Religion in sports as well as in studies; that victory is never victory if standards have been sacrificed.

Namers are grateful to him and to all the priests for their interest in them.

Rev. Stephen A. Mrakuzic

Father Cauley, always ready with a smile and a welcome, is part of Holy Name.

Besides Father's regular duties, he is chaplain of our Holy Name Society and he instructs the high school boys in the life of a Holy Name man.

Rev. Robert W. Cauley

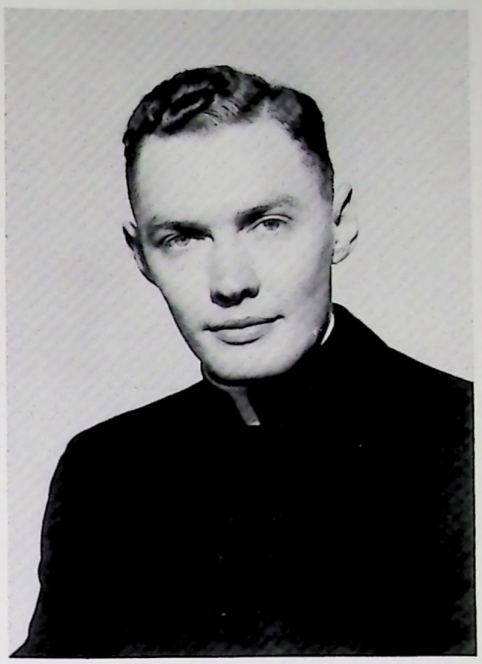
the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Rev. Raymond T. Speight

Father Speight, assistant pastor at St. Timothy's, comes to Holy Name to teach Religion to the sophomores.

Father knows many of the boys and girls at Holy Name for some of them attended the St. Timothy grade school.

His simple definitions and explanations lead the students to a better understanding and practice of the Divine truths.



Rev. Albert J. Tesek

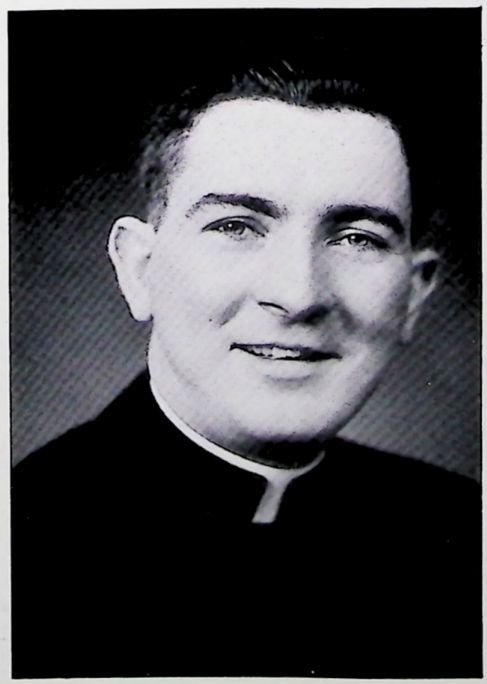
Each week Father Tesek comes to give religious instructions to the freshmen. His manner in emphasizing certain points helps them realize how important their Religion is.

He is an assistant at St. Catherine's parish, and the head of the Holy Name Society at St. Catherine's. This year Father was named head of the East Deanery Holy Name Societies.

A newcomer to the HN Campus, Father McBride came to Holy Name in June, 1956.

Instructing the freshmen in the teachings of Christ, Father also has charge of the Confraternity classes. In the Confraternity work he instructs high school students who are attending public schools.

The music of the Church is one of his interests which appeals to the ninth grader.



Rev. Daniel R. McBride

Father Budimlic leaves his position as assistant pastor at Assumption parish, in Brecksville, every Monday morning, bright and early, to teach the junior Religion classes.

During his years as Religion teacher he has become an important part of Holy Name High School.

As the football team steps out of the school bus, a spontaneous cheer rises skyward and the echoes come ringing back to the ears of the students who have assembled to greet the Green Wave.

Whether the team returns triumphant or in defeat matters not, the cheer is always there because the spirit of Holy Name is ever-present. This spirit, however, is not limited to athletic endeavors.

As students assemble in the gym for the reading of the Honor Roll by Monsignor McDonough, an air of suspense and expectation can be detected. A long list of first and second honor students is nothing new at Holy Name. A spirit of friendly competition, which prompts scholastic improvement, is part of Holy Name's spirit. With such a spirit comes an awareness of the fact that anything one does, whether work or play, must be done with the help of God.

The day is Friday and the time is nine o'clock Mass. Now is one of the many times when the spirit of Holy Name manifests itself. Pew after pew is emptied as Namers file up to the Communion rail to participate in the Divine Banquet, the banquet that will bring to them their Lord and God. This is the spirit of Holy Name.

Holy Name Elementary is situated at the corner of Broadway and Worley Avenues, four city blocks from Holy Name High School. It was purchased from the Board of Education in 1944 when the increased enrollment made the present facilities inadequate.

The building was brought under completion and was occupied by the Sisters of Charity, who opened the doors to the school children of Holy Name Elementary.

Today, thirteen years later, Holy Name Elementary is staffed with a faculty which is preparing the "Little Holy Namers" to carry with them the knowledge that has lived and grown at Holy Name as long as can be remembered.

The Senior Class

Senior class presidents report to Sister Francis Anna that they are the seniors' choice for 1956-57.

Stanley Kosiba, Donald Cozzens, Ronald Zurilla, and John Yama.

On May 29, the senior class will attend their last Mass together. This will mark their last school event, apart from graduation. However, their faith tells them that "down through the years" they will be united with each other in the Mass.

Part of their morning prayers, will be the offering of their day "in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world."

Each morning they may truly say: "I will go to the altar of God."

Being a junior is a very important appointment, according to the junior home room presidents.

This is the year when students really plan their course of study according to what they hope to study in college or to do after graduation.

Responsibilities include the Dinner Dance, with the seniors as guests; the sale of tickets for the Student Council dance, and final preparations for the Commencement exercises of the senior class.

Junior Journalists

Publishing a paper is the work of a certain group of juniors and seniors. This group expected to be looking at the "Junior Edition" when the picture was planned. However, deadlines are deadlines and they are looking at the "Regular Edition" and perhaps they are thinking of the "Junior Edition" which has just gone to the printer.

This class did much for the production of this yearbook.

Sophomores make a great step when they leave the ninth grade behind them. Their promotion means moving into the Carroll Building where they become citizens of the third floor. Each homeroom becomes a single state with a president.

The presidents of the homerooms stop to talk over their new appointments.

"The year looks good from here," says Joseph Walters.

The Gallagher Building is the oldest of the school buildings on the Holy Name campus. It was erected around 1880 by Father Joseph F. Gallagher.

After the erection of the Carroll Building, in 1906, this first building was named for the priest who had supervised its erection.

The Gallagher Building today contains the home rooms of three seventh and three eighth grade classes and six freshman home rooms.

The Freshman Class

James Protiva, Bernard Clark, Edward Stehar, James Dudziak, Frank Valencic.

To the upperclassmen of Holy Name the freshmen are a combination of old ideals and new ideas. They are the "new addition" to Lil' David's family.

To the ninth graders themselves, they are the group of boys and girls who will spend three years learning the Namer's Way. They then will be clothed with the dignity of seniors and will live the legend which is Holy Name's.

Eagerly and seriously they rejoice when their school is ahead. When defeat comes they are able to say: "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name."

The Consecration

As we go
from class to class
we realize that we have an opportunity to consecrate the next forty-five minutes to God.
Renewing this consecration makes study purposeful and preparation easier.

We Consecrate Our Work

Religion classes are the most important of all the classes on the Holy Name schedule.

Daily religious instructions together with weekly conferences, given by the Priests who teach Religion, develop the minds of the students and teach them the virtues necessary for a good Christian life.

These instructions instill within the pupil the Christian social principles which will help them to grow spiritually.

To Know and To Love God

FIRST ROW: R. Langlotz, J. Stulak, J. Chodyna. AT BOARD: R. Oberstar.

SECOND ROW: G. Shovlin, D. Tesar, M. A. Spisak, J. Walters, B. Bonsky.

While studying "Our Quest for Happiness" Religion II classes make a detailed study of the Divinity of Christ. By inquiring into this aspect of Our Lord's two natures, the sophomores gain a greater appreciation of God's goodness toward men.

"Through Christ Our Lord", the name of the second year religion book, is a key to the entire course, God's redeeming love of mankind.

"Et tu Brute . . ." are the words spoken by Julius Caesar as he sees the "noble Brutus" amongst the conspirators. Sophomore English students, armed with fountain pens, are enacting this scene.

John J. McHale, "Caesar" Frank Zbreski, David Malone, William Cromer, James Heisler, Anthony Waskiewicz, Edward Jokkel, William Grau.

Dramatizing selections, such as the one from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar", enables students to gain a greater appreciation for the literary arts. This "Appreciation Through Reading" which is received by studying the works of great writers is one of the purposes of studying literature.

Is Life's Purpose

Scullen Library, the "Hub of the School" is busier than ever as circulation steadily increases.

Friendly and helpful, the library staff, easily identified by their badges, answer student's questions, keep the library orderly, and check out books.

SEATED: E. Bartlett. STANDING: D. Tylicki, C. Ristagno, S. McKeon.

"Marty", the popular play by Paddy Chayefsky, is the present concern of the junior English class.

It will mean so much more if students are appointed to read the different characters' parts in the play.

This play is interesting to juniors for it involves problems which they are meeting day in and day out. As a result, the class can discuss what a Catholic should do in such situations.

'Reading Maketh a Full Man

"You can't tell a book by its cover" is an age-old saying. However, the freshman English classes are making their own covers. In addition to making book reports, these students construct covers to suit the story.

By using a picture from a magazine or drawing an illustration to go with the report, they make book reports more attractive. In this way, they might interest others in reading these good books.

English I

"One picture is worth a thousand words."

The freshmen, however, are making doubly sure of this. English I classes are "drawing pictures of words."

Diagramming makes a sentence, whether simple, compound, or complex, seem much clearer. Subject, verb, direct object, and all other parts of speech fall neatly into place when a sentence is systematically "drawn" on paper or at the blackboard.

FIRST ROW: K. Dixon, C. Stelter, P. Polakiewicz.
SECOND ROW: F. Sabetta, P. Sociech, M. Mayernik (at board).

And Writing an Exact Man'

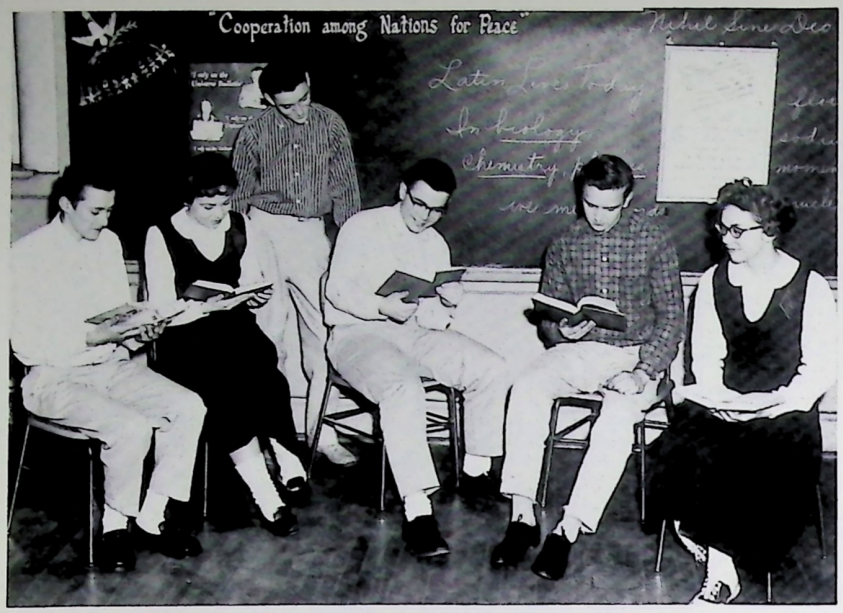
PANEL: D. Wysocki, M. Cempel, D. Cozzens, R. Masek, F. Krajewski, J. Edinger, J. Swyt.

Many are the hours spent with delight by the students of senior English. Early Christian poetry, the Canterbury pilgrims, the English poetry and prose of Modern times are a tapestry which is unfolded to the senior as the year progresses.

Characters live and writer's words become a part of the senior's vocabulary.

Truly one is "what he reads."

Panel discussions are a diversion which comes when certain problems cannot be solved without planning and research.



W. Grau, C. Cermak, D. Malone, J. McHale, S. Benedick, and P. Toth.

The value of Latin in every day life and in following the professions is the study of the Latin II class, at the present time.

Having learned the fundamentals of the language they have become a little analytical and they begin to wonder what the study of Latin will mean for them. Their findings are tremendous:

A better appreciation of the Latin of the Church, a key to the study of science and medicine, and a wider knowledge of their own English language.

'Nihil Sine Deo' . . . Latin, Today,

STANDING: G. German, G. Jankowski, J. Lunburski, L. Maciak, C. Zaniewski, J. Podsiadlo. SEATED: L. Kocisko. KNEELING: N. Sobaslay.

History is being set back nineteen centuries by these freshman Latin students.

The Roman praetor is holding a trial of five Christians who refuse to renounce their Redeemer.

A court attendant and a Roman soldier are anxiously awaiting the decision.

Will the Christians die?

Writing the translation of Latin sentences takes time but it is felt to be time well spent. Latin I students are beginning to see why all those declensions and tenses had to be learned in the early part of the year.

Latin is the language which holds the key to so many doors which the high school student will want to open as life goes on.

J. McNulty, L. Zupanic, M. Burger, C. Fox.

. . . Tomorrow . . . and Tomorrow

STANDING: C. Barto, W. Wiederwohl, R. Zepp, D. Cozzens, E. Ellsmere.

SEATED: M. Berg, M. Kuczynski, S. Nagorski, V. Kollin, R. Masek, K. Beeching, D. Murphy.

The works of Cicero and Virgil occupy much of the time of the students of Latin III and IV. Translating Cicero's orations and Virgil's epic poem, "The Aeneid," gives each member of the class facility in reading the poetry which helps to make the study so enjoyable.

To appreciate the wanderings of Aeneas a study of a map is helpful and necessary.

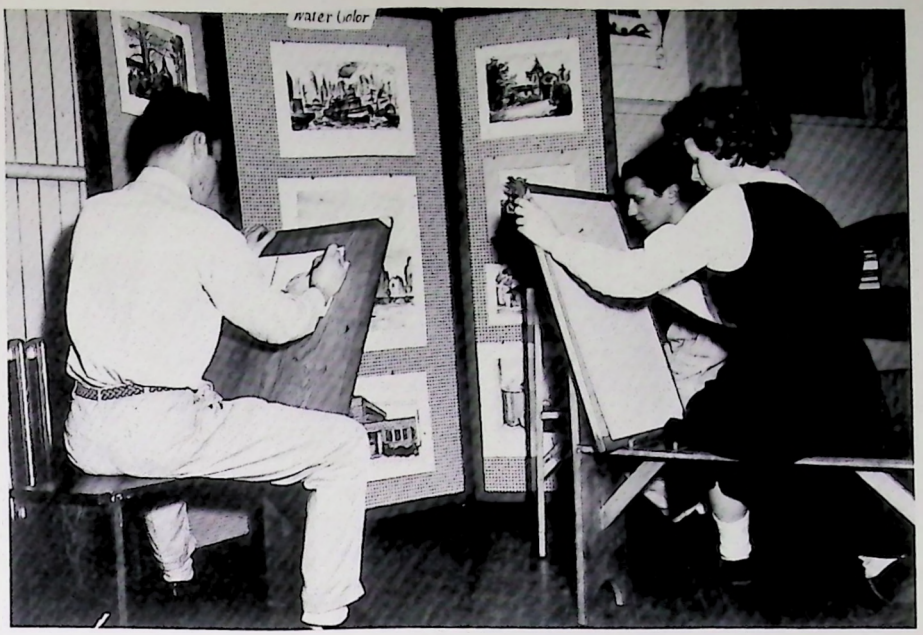
Receiving information about mosaics from fellow classmate H. Wiederwohl are R. Schustrick, F. Carr, R. Balogh, C. Kantura. Working with tile, J. O'Neill.

Lines, Circles, Paints and Brushes

Freshmen in Art I learn the principle of art as based upon the philosophy of Saint Thomas Aquinas and his Four Causes. Added to this, they get a foundation in the basic skills and techniques of drawing, painting, designing, and composing.

Crafts classes make use of wood carving, whittling, chip carving, metal etching, reed weaving, metal tooling, leather tooling, leather carving, poster lettering, paper mache, and ceramics.

Working in water color are J. Malinowski, M. A. Spisak, C. Barto, E. DiRosa.



Copying water colors:
William Hartnett, Patricia Rybak, Donald Fricky.

Give the Touch of Lasting Beauty

Advanced art students are making mosaics among which is a mosaic panel depicting the Holy Name. It shows Our Blessed Mother raising the Holy Child in blessing with the words "Holy is His Name" completing the design. Ceramic tiles and glass tesserae imbedded in cement and mounted on plywood are used to make this picture.

Drawing, fashion design, figure drawing, perspective drawing, water color, both transparent and opaque, pastel, and oil painting, enameling, and ceramics are the techniques used in this class.

Fashion design:
Geraldine Kerr, model.

Sue Sejhar, Patricia Rybak, Herman Wiederwohl, George Brzozowski, and Patrick Powers.

S. Sejhar, A. Bauknecht, E. Pullar, D. Antos.

Spanish I

With its colorful pictures of Spain and Mexico, the Spanish text is appealing to everyone. The humorous stories give a zest to hard study.

Gayly colored bulletin boards are set up for students by the Spanish students.

"Quelles robes choisissez-vous?"

French I

"Quelles robes choisissez-vous?"

Al Mitermiler is quite bored, waiting for Barbara Prosek, Marilyn Kuczynski, Doris Dukes, and Janet Daly to decide "Which gown do you choose?"

Such scenes make this first year French class animated, and the students eager to learn. Conversational French seems to give more reason for the study of this romance language.

American History classes were very happy to be able to read copies of letters written by Robert E. Lee. Those holding special interest were his letters to Jefferson L. Davis and to General Scott. Letters written in 1861 make interesting reading in 1957.

I. Mazonas, D. Dukes, J. Bullock, D. Lipnick, M. Coleman. SEATED: C. Spillar.

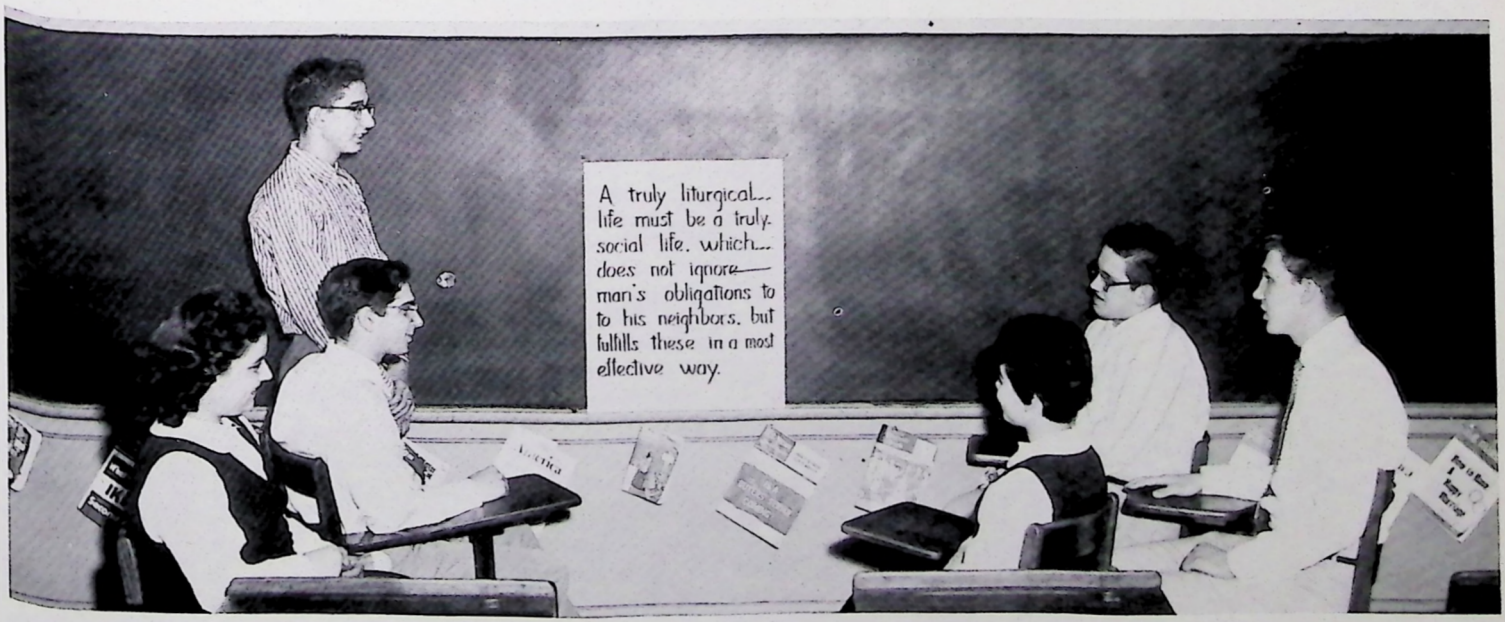
Know Suffering and Alleviate It

Sociology

In sociology classes seniors learn that the Mass has a social aspect, too. This helps them to know that it will be their work as future Catholic citizens to alleviate the sufferings in the world. The aspect of the work of Christians in witnessing to the Mystery is the task of alleviating misery and trying to improve organizations, institutions, and the ways of life.

A study of the Christian Social Principles and the Popes' Encyclicals gives the students the position of the Church on the social order and labor problems.

The study should help students in their life in society, for the Christian must try to alleviate the sufferings of his fellowmen so to share with them the Christian secret of fruitful suffering and final victory over suffering and death.



A truly liturgical... life must be a truly social life, which... does not ignore— man's obligations to to his neighbors, but fulfills these in a most effective way.

Discussing the social aspect of the Liturgy are: J. Hudek, C. Roso, P. Velardo, R. Zurilla, J. Konopka. STANDING: G. Hudak.

LEFT TO RIGHT: A. Knuth, B. Oranski, R. Demczyk.

Studying unknowns and numbers has always been fascinating to man because it is an ever-changing process. The fundamentals of Algebra I and Geometry are but stepping stones to Algebra II and Trigonometry.

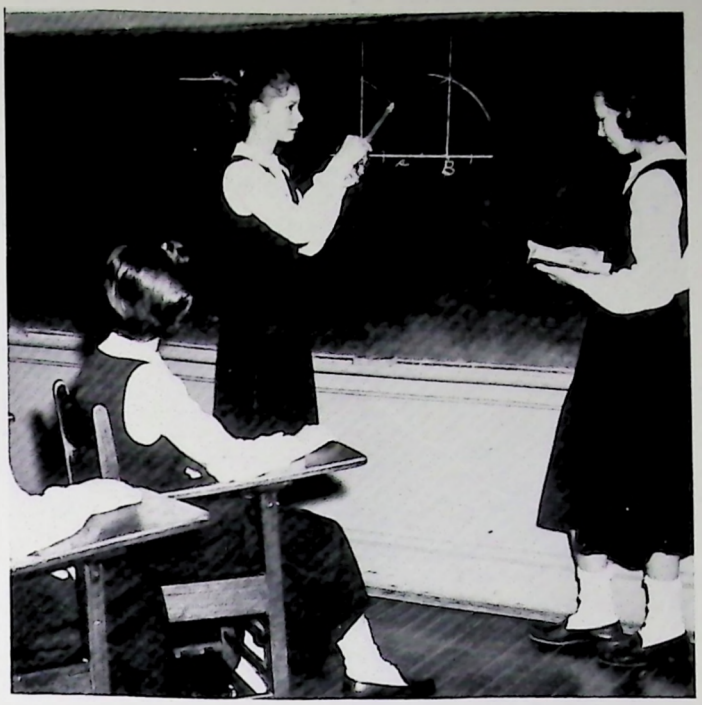
Mathematics Possesses Not Only Truth

Senior boys enjoy the study of the slide rule. It saves time when it is learned and the learning time is very interesting.

Freshman mathematicians solve fractional equations which involve parentheses. It seems like double trouble, at first, but study makes these interesting.

LEFT TO RIGHT: J. Armstrong, E. Mulacek, W. Yanke, R. Donovan, W. Kennedy, L. Puzynski. SEATED: M. Swaney.

Geometry classes find construction problems something which really makes them think. Constructing a square with a given side is the present problem, and the square is really almost constructed.

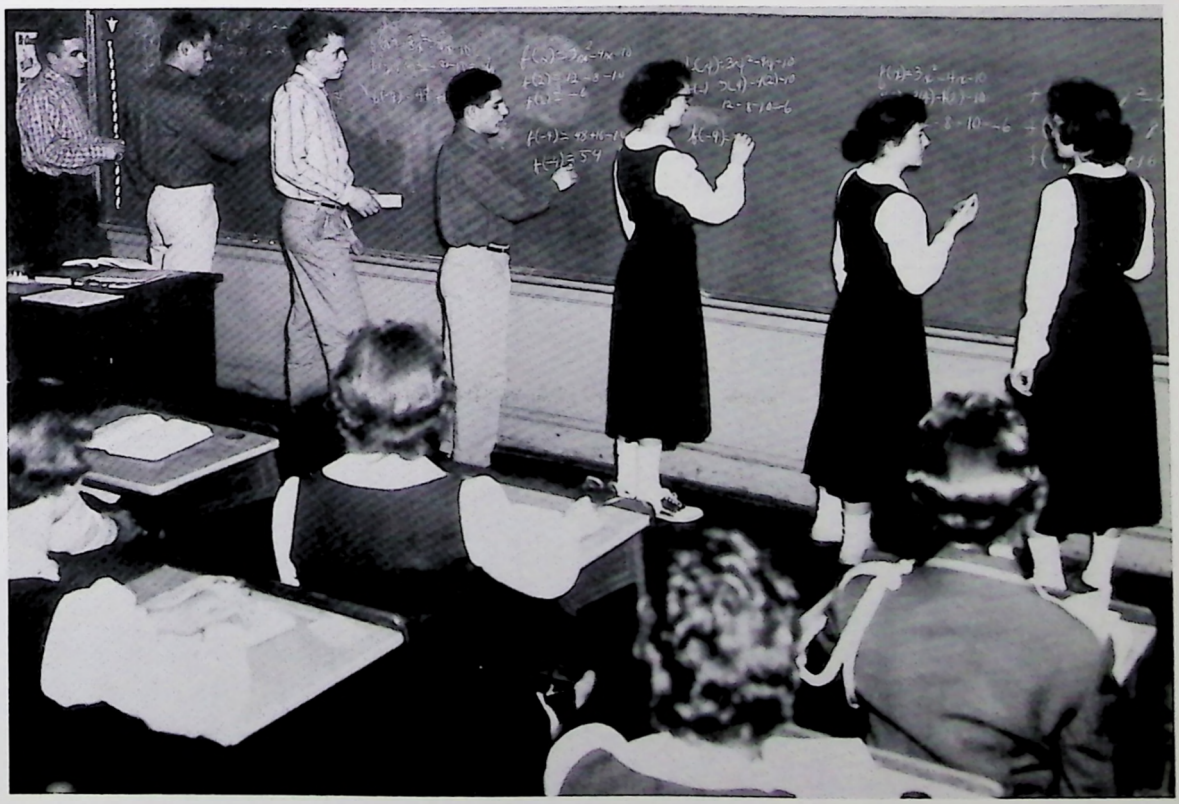


AT BOARD: J. Valencic, S. Pagowski.
SEATED: J. Chodyna.

. . . But Supreme Beauty

Second year algebra students have become well acquainted with the values of X in first year algebra. Their present study is the function of X. Studying values is fascinating.

Finding the reason why a first degree equation, when plotted on a graph, equals a straight angle, or why theorems cannot be changed, are but a few of the complex problems facing these students.



AT BOARD, left to right: D. Kowalski, L. Iacoboni, M. Gibney, T. Zingale, S. Betourney, B. Beck, L. Yeskulsky.

FIRST ROW: P. Bakula, T. Torowski.
SECOND ROW: P. Cornhoff, D. Galayda, M. Spisak, W. Powers. B. Shaeweski, J. Klima, S. Smithheisler, R. Bakos, L. Stevens. L. Krnac and Mr. Louis Popek.

Biology students are occupied with experiments on animal and plant life. In this way, they can find out, also, about their own complex structure.

The science of living things opens the door of Nature onto the ever unfolding wonders of life.

General Science treats of the whole of science, touching on each branch of the wonders created by God in the Tree of Life.

Freshmen study the chemistry of the air, water, and common materials; of force and energy, and of living things.

We Study the Sciences

Sodium nitrate? Magnesium chloride? Zinc sulfate? These seem to be the question in the minds of these chemistry students as they are busily attempting to analyze their unknowns.

Two weeks of the school year, in chemistry, is devoted to quantitative analysis of unknown compounds. In this way, students obtain an idea of some of the opportunities in the field of chemistry.

T. Kaniecki, E. Petras, M. A. Roda, J. Sorensen, O. Truax.

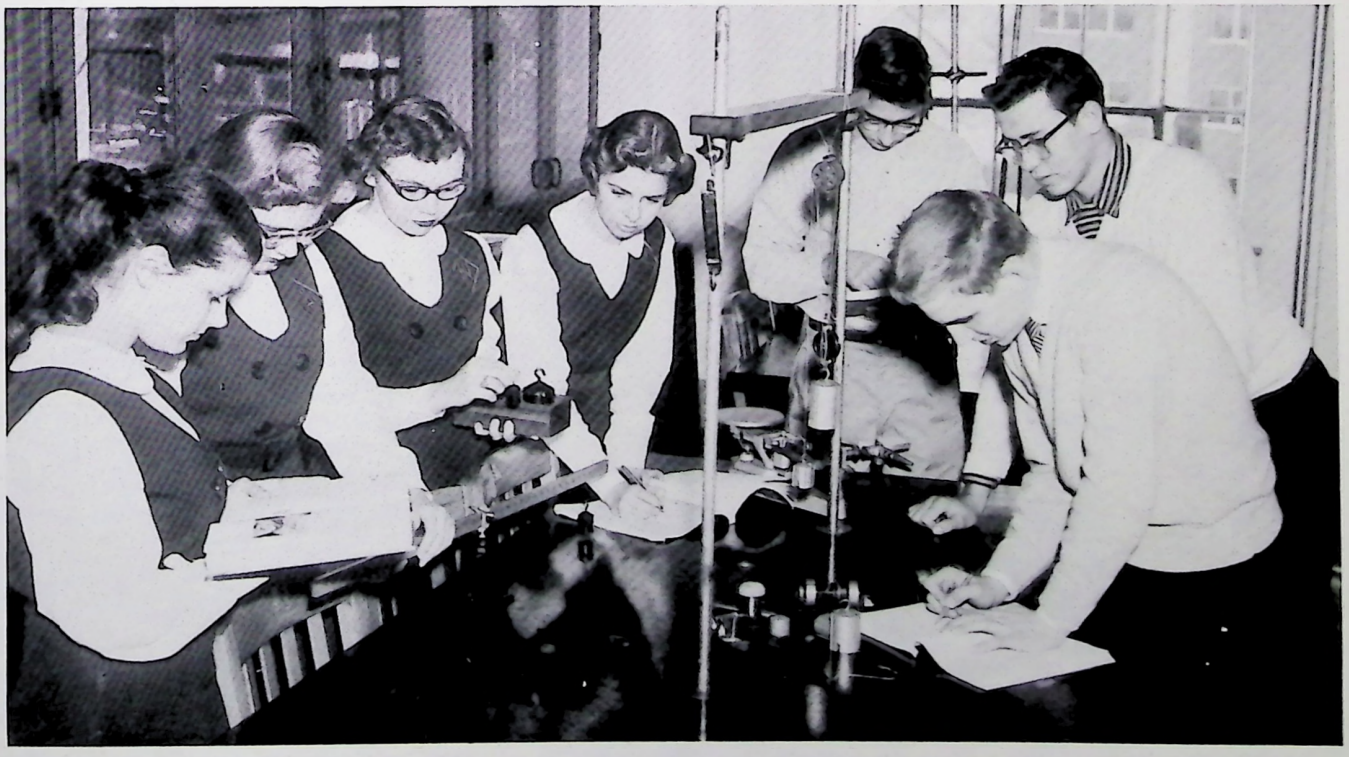
Physics

Physics, the science of matter and motion, holds fascination and interest for senior students. It includes heat, light, electricity, and sound.

Energy, and the work it can accomplish, is studied by these students who might become scientists or engineers. Perhaps they may wish to join the growing ranks of Nuclear Physicists.

W. Beutell, F. Krajewski, R Najmulski, J. Hudec.

Physics . . . Matter and Motion



S. Nagorski, J. Edinger, K. Kus, A. Toth, G. Hudak, G. Chodyna, J. Szelagowski.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Myra Elliot, B. Antos, E. Delia, L. Perkins, P. Kolasinski.

Beauty and modesty are exemplified in the smart fashions worn by models Joan Armbruster, Carol Nemec, and Barbara Saunders. Each garment is chosen, with careful consideration; to be sure it fits into the budget, suits the personality, and augments the wardrobe.

With the Blessed Virgin Mary as their model, the girls strive to develop good taste and the virtues of Christian womanhood.

Girls in the foods class are being prepared to assume the role of the charming and gracious hostesses of tomorrow.

They must learn the techniques of good food preparation, efficient work methods, and the elements of table setting and services.

Adequate and appetizing meals play an important part in promoting the health and happiness of the family.

The hostess, Victoria Keider, demonstrates the art of hospitality for her guests. She is assisted by waitress Deanne Bruno.

Optimum nutrition, cost, and appetite appeal are stressed as these young cooks learn the basic principles of buying and food preparation.

Chefs Stanley Olzski and John Vigliotti prepare sandwiches for an American style luncheon being served by Mary Ann Oreskovic, with the assistance of Mary L. Chessar and Frances Prusha.

Since sickness is often a part of God's Plan for the sanctification of souls, Holy Name future homemakers learn the virtues and skills needed to care for the sick members of the family.

Obedience to the Doctor's orders, cheerfulness, and patience are stressed. In addition to home nursing the American Red Cross Course in "Mother and Baby Care" is part of the program. Here, Miss Jacqueline Heed, R.N., demonstrates the proper way to bathe a baby as freshmen Carol Mincini, Rose Mary Sheldon, Jo-ann Slievinski, and Linda Zupancic look on.

We Learn the Art of Gracious Living

Mr. Hunt, of the Goodman Furniture Company, points out facts and figures on furniture selection. With the realization that the home is the center of Christian family living, limitation of budget, family activities, and the basic art principles are stressed.

In their home decoration class Patricia Wolslager, Arlene Zucco, Rosemary Masek, and Patricia Burke consider and discuss buying furniture on a long range budget plan to meet the needs of a growing family.

W. Witkowski, G. Houdek, P. Cloonan, B. Shipkosky, J. Driscoll.

The Bookkeeping Cycle needs a little consultation and members of this class find their associates very happy to share their knowledge. The study of the various transactions in the bookkeeping cycle gives the student time to concentrate on the actual procedure of each account.

Care, precision, and good penmanship are some of the requisites for the bookkeeper, especially if he has his eye on an "A" per cent production.

Yesterday — Tomorrow —

Knowledge of the earliest history of man is brought to sophomores and freshmen in their World History classes through the use of maps and their modern texts.

Later in world affairs they become involved with the barbarian invasions and the continuous struggle of the Roman Empire to defend herself against the paganism of the times.

AT TEACHER'S DESK: J. Praznik.

Mechanical drawing is a class of all boys. Girls may take the course but at the present time it seems to be popular with the boys.

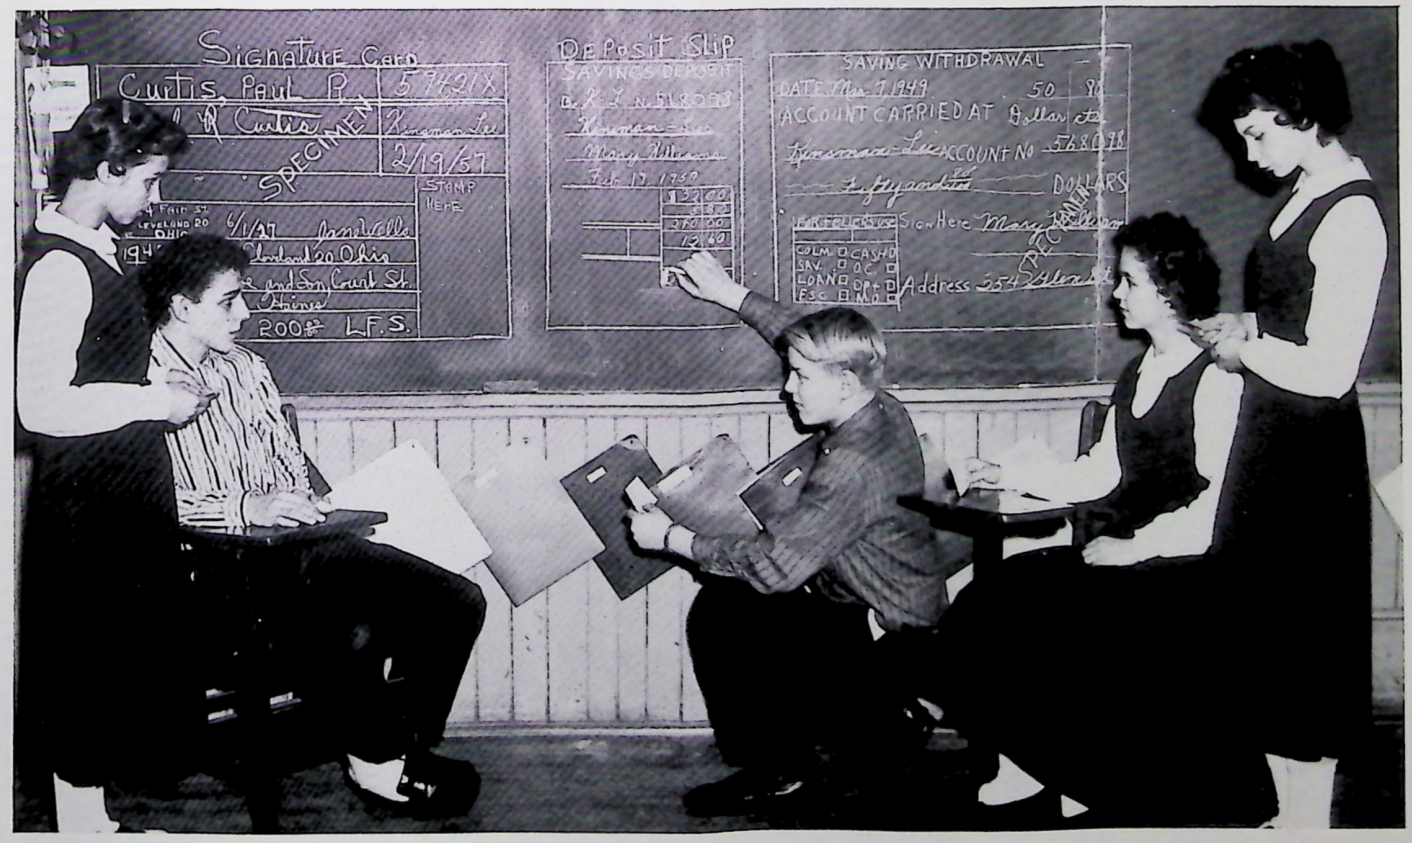
They learn the fine points of dimensioning and how to make drawings which will be readable by a shopworker. This experience should help the boys in their adult life, especially if they plan a career as draftsman or engineer.

ROW AGAINST WALL, first desk to last: G. Brzozowski, W. Harnett, W. Elam, J. Balogh.
SECOND ROW: R. Sopota, D. Tylicki, J. Soltis, R. Baszynski.
THIRD ROW: T. Skeel, J. Minisall.

Numbers Can Tell Interesting Tales

In learning the advantages of saving and taking out a Savings Account the students in general mathematics are finding some interesting work.

Comparison of amounts and accounts gives the students an opportunity for leadership and for becoming acquainted with the members of their class.



R. Verostko, R. Harrison, J. Gordon, R. Zepp, K. Dixon.

E. Hellerman, J. Mahoney, M. Baclawski.

The office practice class is also furnished with a three-piece telephone set for the practice in proper telephone usage and voice tone. The voice is amplified when speaking into the receiver so that the rest of the class may criticize or make suggestions. Everyone in the class is given a chance to use this set.

In Business Education Classes

In both first and second year typing classes, one, five, and ten minute timings are recorded to increase accuracy in speed. Production work is also assigned in applying the fundamental techniques that have been learned.

FIRST ROW: A. Mahoney, J. Lang, M. McKee.
THIRD ROW: P. Cloonan, M. Havran, M. Schmitt, B. Boruszewski, S. Rock, E. Vasil, G. Kerr.

A rotation schedule is set up in the office practice class, with different girls doing different jobs in order to give the students the feeling of a real office. Three days a week are spent on this procedure and two days a week are spent on text book discussions.

Among the machines used in this class are the electric typewriter, the Ditto duplicator, the Mimeograph and Mimeoscope machines, Burroughs calculators and comptometers, ten-key and full-key adding machines, Ediphone and Dictaphone transcribing machines, and check-protector.

Fourteen periods are spent on filing, two as class supervisor, and two as office assistant.

FIRST ROW: Operating Ediphone and Dictaphone transcribing machines: J. Edinger, L. Stulak, E. Demczyk, D. Phillips.
SECOND ROW: Operating Calculators: P. Carano, M. Skerl.
REAR: Totaling inventory on the Full-Key Adding Machine: M. Cashane.

Take a Letter . . . Miss Namer!

First-year shorthand students learn the fundamental rules and characters and later apply them when taking dictation. They are eligible for the senior and junior O. G. A. award tests.

Second year shorthand students take the monthly Gregg dictation-transcription tests as well as daily transcription quizzes.

A speed of 80 wpm is aimed at by the end of the first year and 120 at the end of the second year.

FIRST ROW: P. Slack, M. McKee, P. Rybak, K. Jacquemain, C. Boatman, E. Vasil.
SECOND ROW: P. Vercek, I. Lick, D. Dukes, E. Dunn, J. Lang, A. Mahoney.
THIRD ROW: M. Stibil, S. Urbanowicz, M. Dernyar, C. Runewicz.
FOURTH ROW: B. Boruszewski, S. Rock, E. Danko, J. Nose.

ROW NEAR BOARD, first seat to last: P. Burke, B. Demczyk, J. Edinger, M. Graham.
SECOND ROW: P. Dannes, M. C. Hagberg, C. Drinko, D. Phillips.

Seniors in the journalism class are studying how to plan the first page of their school paper.

Journalism may be studied in the eleventh and twelfth grades with possibility of a position on the staff of "The Name" and the "Namer". Position on the staff depends on ability to write, interest in the paper and yearbook, getting ads and patrons, and unselfishness in staying long hours after the school has been dismissed.

Listen Intelligently--Write Interestingly

A happy interest in the melodious settings of Merle Isaac's school orchestrations is reflected in the faces of this group of students, members of the general music course.

Since September, these freshmen have been learning the basic knowledge and guidance necessary for intelligent listening.

This will give them a greater appreciation for good music in the years which lie ahead.

The Communion

God has given us
the gifts of music and laughter
and song
the beauty of the kind word
the plenty of America.
This Communion of gifts of God
we are eager to share with those we love
or those who need them.
We share God's gift of giving.

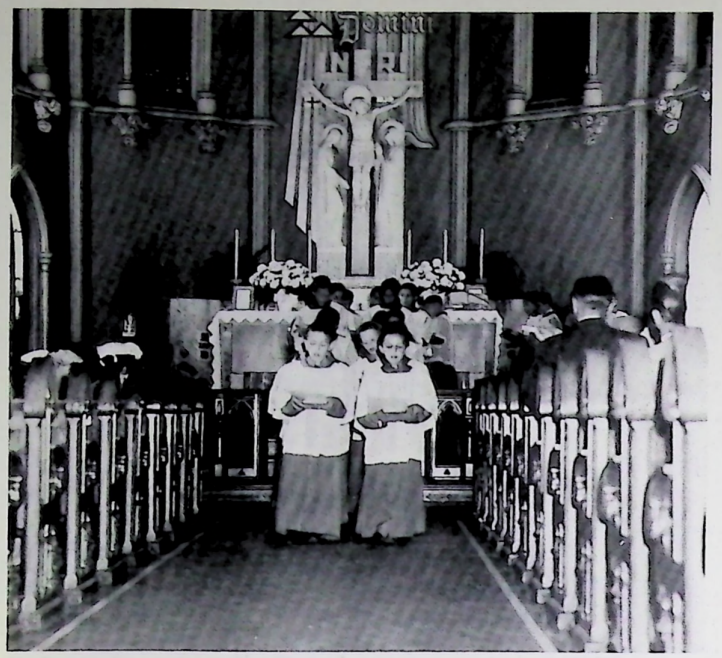
The Communion of Giving, Receiving



A group of very select boys have a highly honored place at Holy Name. They are the members of the Server's Society.

Grade school servers sing antiphons or hymns on their way to the Choir where they will sing the High Mass with the adult choir members.

The Senior Servers

What could reap a richer reward for these boys who assist the priest, sometimes at six a.m.? It is an unceasing way of life. Material riches will crumble; but graces stored in Heaven are incorruptible.

At the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, they kneel but a few steps from the Divine Presence and they are thus enabled to hear those wonderful words, "Hoc est enim Corpus meum."

Glee Club

FIRST ROW: M. Graham, P. Mohan, K. Kus, S. Nagorski, P. Dunn, B. Bury.
SECOND ROW: R. Masek, C. Adams, G. Chodyna, M. Sasso, M. Quealy, M. C. Hagberg.
THIRD ROW: W. Beutell, R. Donovan, J. Dial.

A special feature, this year, of the Glee Club is the mixed group. These five boys and ten girls have special practice each Wednesday.

They are a welcomed number on the school programs.

Holy Name orchestra spends many happy hours practicing for the performances for which they will play throughout the year. The highlight of their performances is the Spring Festival.

The hours spent in preparation are repaid when the harmony of instruments blends selections of classical and semi-classical music.

FIRST ROW: M. Hagberg, M. Berger, J. Dernyar, B. Bury, F. Calvetta, O. Truax, P. Dunn, R. Ogello.
SECOND ROW: J. Rees, J. Mrugacz, N. Burlinghaus, M. Jones, J. Bernarski, P. Minisall, K. Parle, M. L. Bourque, M. Chibroski, F. Weglecki.
THIRD ROW: J. Murphy, R. Werner, M. Burke.

'Believe Me, If All Those

God has given to man many talents which help him to enjoy the good and the beautiful and to give praise to Him.

Holy Name Glee Club gives the students the opportunity to display their musical talents. With hard work but with great enjoyment the Glee Club and the mixed chorus prepared for various musical festivities throughout the year.

Performances included the Saint Cecilia's Day program, with such songs as Jerome Kern's "I've Told Every Little Star" and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

FIRST ROW: Cynthia Brandel, Noreen Burlinghaus, Karen Kus, Patricia Dunn, Marieann Berg, Dorothy Gigliotti, Paulette Velardo.
SECOND ROW: Kathryn Beeching, Mary Cempel, Mary Alice Baclawski, Joan Edinger, Patricia Mohan, Mary Ann Ferko, Carol Roso.

Endearing Young Charms'

Christmas came and the choirs went to the State Hospital to sing the traditional Christmas hymns.

"Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "The Low Backed Car" set the scene for St. Patrick's Day.

In April, the senior glee club girls supplied the musical intervals for the home economics fashion show.

The year's program concluded with the Spring Festival held on May 26. This was a presentation of music and song for parents and friends.

In lifting up their voices to God, they bring enjoyment to others and to themselves. Singing is a wonderful gift from God.

FIRST ROW: Mary Witkowski, Virginia Kollin, Sandra Nagorski, Madonna Graham, Elaine DiRosa, JoAnn Mahoney, Mary Quealy.
SECOND ROW: Joan Trzaska, Jacqueline Rucinski, Katherine O'Grady, Carol Drinko, Sue Betourney, Bernice Bury.
THIRD ROW: Joan Bielinski, Dorothy Phillips, Judith Edinger, Arlene Zucco, Eva Hellerman, Patricia Betourney.

"To Jesus Through Mary"

Members of the Girls Sodality of Our Lady have arranged a list of names for the Pamphlet-A-Month Guild. Knowing that the Apostolate of the Catholic Press is vital to the cause of Catholic Action all sodalists took an active part in Catholic Press Month. As a result, pamphlets are being sent, every month, to far-away missions, hospitals, public high schools, and to "shut-ins".

The life of a sodalist is a busy one. "Ad Jesum per Mariam", say the sodalists as they glance back on their activities of 1956-57.

In October, sodalists were outstanding in their observance of Catholic Youth Week.

The Sodality Apostolate was active especially at the regular meetings where "Buzz" sessions helped the girls to form in their minds a truly Catholic and Christ-like attitude toward their life in school and elsewhere.

December marked the formal reception of the freshman sodalists on December 12 and the senior sodalists had a Day of Recollection given by Father Albert A. Karper. They saw, too, that gifts were given to the poor.

STANDING: Mary Catherine Hagberg, prefect.
SEATED: Carole Adams, treasurer; Father James Hughes, Spiritual Director; Patricia Dunn, vice prefect; Madonna Graham, secretary.

The CANSU Congress on March 23, 24, gave the sodalists the privilege of attending conferences and discussions conducted by Father James McQuade, S.J., and Father Joseph Sommer, S.J.

With the assistance of the Art Department, the sodality sponsored a vocation exhibit at the Diocesan Vocation Exhibit in April.

The month of May found the sodalists honoring their Mother Mary and their own mothers at Mass and Communion and at the Communion breakfast which followed. The May Crowning was the placing of all the year's activities at the feet of Our Lady by the sodality prefect. It was the scene for the pledging of the activities honoring Mary for the coming year by the newly-elected prefect.

The Student Council

The Student Council, formed by Monsignor McDonough, is composed of the class presidents and vice presidents of the nineteen home rooms.

The Council first convened on November 7, 1956, and during that meeting and subsequent meetings they drew up their constitution. Items considered were elections, amendments, and the preservation of the Council.

The duties of the Council, under the supervision of Monsignor, are to act as the Voice of the student to the faculty and to represent the faculty under certain circumstances where extra supervision is necessary.

One Hundred Dollar Club

Every organization needs leadership. The yearbook, having the financial and editorial side, has two groups of leaders. The staff takes care of the planning and writing of the yearbook and the advertising staff helps to supply the finances needed for the publication of the yearbook.

Each member of this group sold at least One Hundred Dollars worth of advertising. They are the leaders of the financial side of the "Namer". They begin around Thanksgiving time to get advertising, Boosters, and Patrons. When their work is over, the editorial staff knows just what they can do with the amount of advertising sold.

At Holy Name, every member of the school is privileged to help with both parts of the yearbook.

Meet the Band from Holy Name High

Margaret Tobias, Patricia Keehn, and Joan Relic.

"The best in town" is the general remark heard concerning the Green Wave Band as they bring home honors from every concert and game.

From a snappy marching tune to a soothing waltz, these Namers can be heard drilling each Tuesday and Thursday.

At the head of this group is Mr. Robert Pattie, who has been associated with Holy Name for eight years. It is under his fine guidance that Holy Name's Band is rated as one of the best in Cleveland.

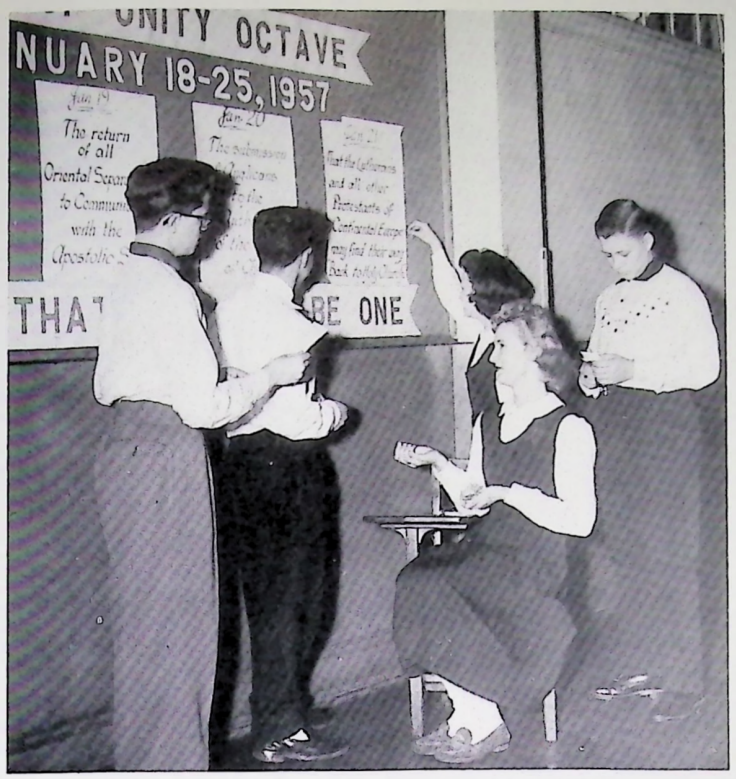
"Nice going, Gerard," commends Mr. Pattie. For six and one-half years, Gerard Chodyna has played in the band.

As head drum major for the green-clad Namers, he has helped to bring many laurels to Holy Name during the past two years. His perfect attendance shows his high regard for the band.



The bulletin board on the first floor of the Carroll Building is used as a reminder for the spiritual or national calendar.

Members of the World History class have finished arranging notices of the Church Unity Octave which encourages students to unite with the Church in praying "that they all may be one . . ."

Books Emphasize Their Importance

The Library Club is one of the newest organizations at Holy Name but it is one of the most active.

The members of the Club have certain days assigned when they help with the different positions in the library. The more than thirty members meet once a month for discussions and appointments.

Members of the junior and senior classes conduct the English classes of the ninth and tenth grades in their visits to the library. They explain to them the use of the library.

The Library Club officers are: Joan Cifani, program chairman; Carol Thom, secretary; Beatrice Bugay, vice president; Dorothy Gigliotti, president.

William Witkowski, Mr. James Gallico, and Thomas Wojciak.

During the course of the year several speakers are invited to talk to the juniors and seniors either about courses in college or about opportunities for work.

Mr. James Gallico of the University of Dayton talks to two senior boys about selecting the right college courses.

Father John Weber of John Carroll University and Father Levis of Gannon College, Erie, Pennsylvania were other speakers at Holy Name this year.

We Want To Remind You—

Frank Byszewski, Kathleen Szelminski.

As students change class they frequently pass a bulletin board which reminds them that they have a definite purpose in life.

These bulletin boards sometimes bring back the wandering thoughts of someone who is not working too well during a study period.

The bulletin boards also give the students an admiration and a love for "true" art.

'Holy God, We Praise Thy Name'

"Blessed be the Name of Jesus Christ!" These words carry a special meaning to every Holy Name man. To him, the Sacred Name is a beacon by which he guides his words and actions.

Reverence is a watchword to every member of the Holy Name Society. Monthly Communion Day is a time for every man to renew his promise to honor and respect that Name. A Holy Name man repeats what is in his heart as he speaks the words, "I dedicate my manhood to the Sacred Name of Jesus Christ."

Officers of the Holy Name Society of Holy Name High School are, first row, James Sparano, president; Fred Bozic, vice president; second row, William Witkowski, treasurer; and Joseph Swyt, secretary.

Thoughtfulness the Seton Way—

SEATED: C. Drinko, B. Bury, C. Adams.

STANDING: L. Fantelli, M. C. Hagberg, M. Grau, P. Betourney.

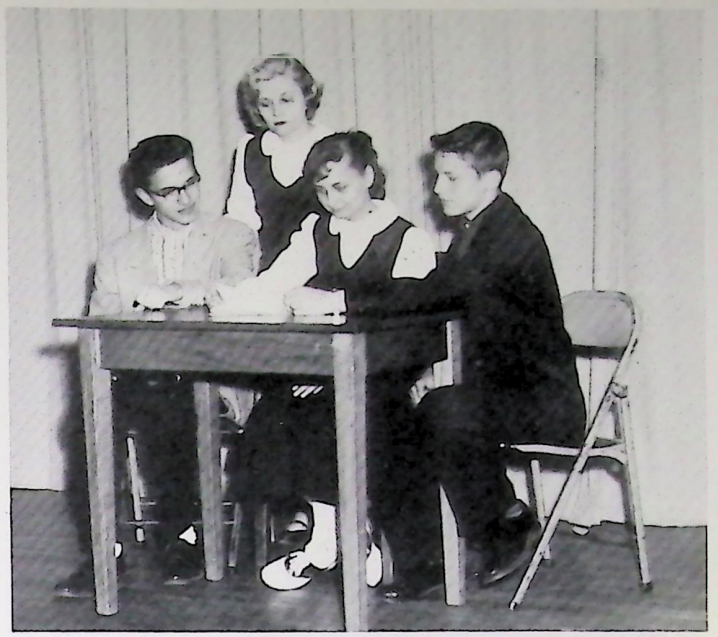
An active organization of Holy Name High School is the Mother Seton League.

The main purpose, this year, is to pray for the canonization of its patron, Mother Seton.

The secondary purpose is to imitate her works and the League does this by helping with Thanksgiving and Valentine parties for the people at the Little Sisters of the Poor. They have made leis and layettes for the Red Cross organization and bean bags for Rosemary Home. They have made scrapbooks for the Crile hospital. The Jennings Home is also on their list for Seton activities.

In the degree of their participation, they are awarded different types of medals on Merit Day.

Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Cain, the Speech Club meets three days a week. Throughout the course of the year, the students have participated in two speech tournaments and have given two one-act plays: "High Windows" and "Maid of Old New York."



Officers of the club are: AT DESK: Philip Ricca, Joyce Podsiadlo, Roger Clepac.
STANDING: Noreen McCloy.

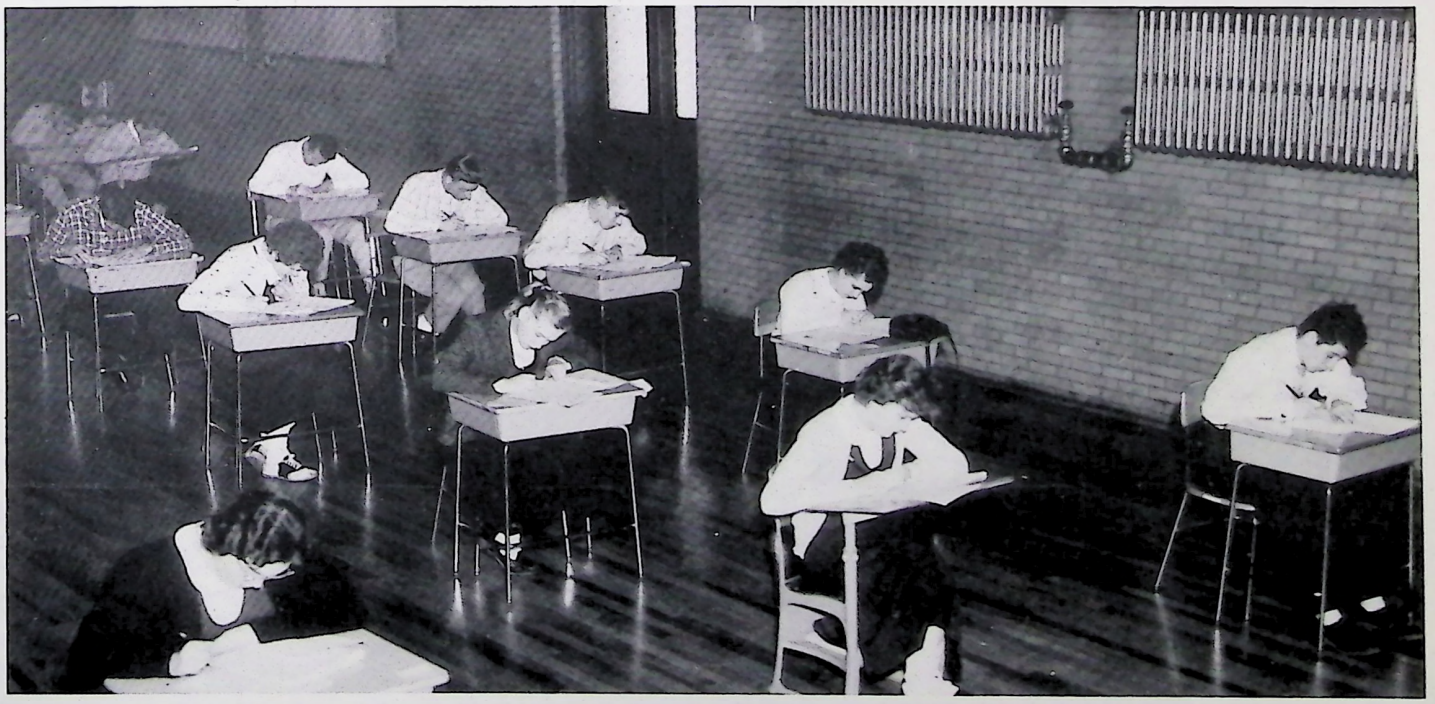
Planning . . . . . Testing

There comes a time in our lives when we have to pass varied types of tests. Some may be physical, while others may be of a type which tests the character.

Reflection and time for prayer are two requisites.

Seniors have many opportunities to show what their high school education has meant to them as they meet and pass these tests.

The Ohio Scholarship test is one that is taken, in the gym, just before the end of the first semester. Ratings from these tests tell the seniors where their strength and weakness lie. The subjects in which they are best should be the ones which indicate their work after graduation.



The Catholic Student Mission Crusade

Vice President Nixon has just returned from his Good Will Tour. Letters are coming to the Catholic Students Mission Crusade secretary bearing the postmark of some of the places which the Vice President visited.

From the Gold Coast, now Ghana, comes a letter telling about the two seminarians who have been adopted. Rev. Albert Opung and Rev. James Mochiak will be ordained this coming December 8 and Namers are happy that they have done a little to make this great day possible for them.

Orphans at Villa Nazareth in Rome write to express their gratitude for the gifts sent to them. From the Philippines a letter says that Father Stack will be able to do twice as much, working among the natives, because he will be able to use two catechists with student sacrifices.

Displaying and reading letters from Missionaries are Patrick Mullen, Patricia Matlin, Joseph Swyt, and JoAnn Mahoney.

Here at home, penny sacrifices have brought happiness to children at Old Albuquerque, New Mexico and to Father Edwards, S.J., of Pine Ridge, S.D., whose interest is with the Indians.

Father Foken, a missionary in Oklahoma, is taking care of six missions. He writes an interesting letter about the new Mission Chapel which he hopes to build at the foothills of the Ozarks. The Namer check was the first to reach Father Foken after the plans for the new Chapel had been made.

This is the report of the HN Mission Unit for the present year but it does not include the many things which have been done for many children closer to Holy Name.

Ite Missa Est,

The Priest
in the Mass says:
"Go, it is finished".
The school bell seems to say the same thing
at the end of the day.
But realizing our gifts
and our blessings
we must 'Go' carrying Christ
into sports and work
and play.
May God help us to heed this 'Go'
until we hear
His 'Come!'

Sports

Mr. Marlo Termini

Mr. Marlo Termini, head basketball coach at Holy Name, became a member of the Holy Name coaching staff in 1953 as freshman basketball and football coach. At the close of the 1953 season, Mr. Termini was appointed to the head coach position, where he has remained for the past four years.

Coach Termini was graduated from Holy Name with the class of 1944. After serving with the Armed Forces, Mr. Termini entered the University of Dayton and majored in physical education.

Coach Termini is in charge of all gym classes at Holy Name.

Mr. Thomas Gauntner

Mr. Gauntner came to Holy Name and assumed the position of head football coach in the summer of 1956. He was graduated from Western Reserve University in 1950 where he played football and majored in biology.

His coaching positions prior to Holy Name have been at St. Edward's where he was a track coach and assistant football coach; and at Cathedral Latin, where he was assistant football coach.

Mr. Louis Popek

After graduation from Lincoln High School, Mr. Popek entered the Army during which time he traveled to seven countries. Following his Army career, he attended Bowling Green University.

Mr. Popek, who joined the teaching staff of Holy Name in 1955, is now teaching World Geography and General Science. His coaching positions are line coach in football, junior varsity basketball, and track.

Sports

The Sports program at Holy Name takes into consideration the idea of Sports which Pope Pius XII has given on several occasions. Principal among these, the athlete is reminded to think of the following:

"By positive action, education in sport will tend to develop the faculties of the intelligence and the will, especially in competitive contests; the former by training youth to reflect, to judge, to use wisely his energy, to foresee the tactical movements of his adversaries and to be able to seize the opportune moment for the use of his own reserve energy and dexterity.

"More difficult is the training of the will, whose vigor in competitive sport can be said to be the determining factor of successful effort while being at the same time the most important advantage that the young man may derive for his life as a man and as a Christian.

"Everything can contribute to this education: the consciousness of duty, the legitimate desire for victory, small sacrifices gladly accepted, a proper sense of honor.

"The presence of a will prepared to engage in competition is evidenced in careful and methodical training, in perseverance following upon failure to win, in resistance to stronger competitors, in bearing discomfort, in courage and in self-mastery.

"Hence it is not the strength of one's muscles nor the quick reflexes nor the victories easily attained, that constitute the nobility and the attractiveness of sport. It is rather the assured dominion over one's spiritual faculties."

Mr. John Zebkar

Coach John Zebkar joined the coaching staff at Holy Name in the summer of 1956. A graduate of John Carroll University, Mr. Zebkar holds records of football gains and the longest touchdown run at John Carroll.

At Holy Name, Coach Zebkar teaches History and Physical Education. On the football field, Mr. Zebkar is backfield coach for Holy Name's team.

Father James E. Hughes

Father Hughes, Holy Name's Athletic Director, guides the Green Wave from the football season through basketball season and track. He helps the players in their decisions and difficulties. His example inspires all to be better sportsmen and to help Holy Name's markings as a grade A school.

His blessings before every game makes the Holy Name athlete ready "to do battle."

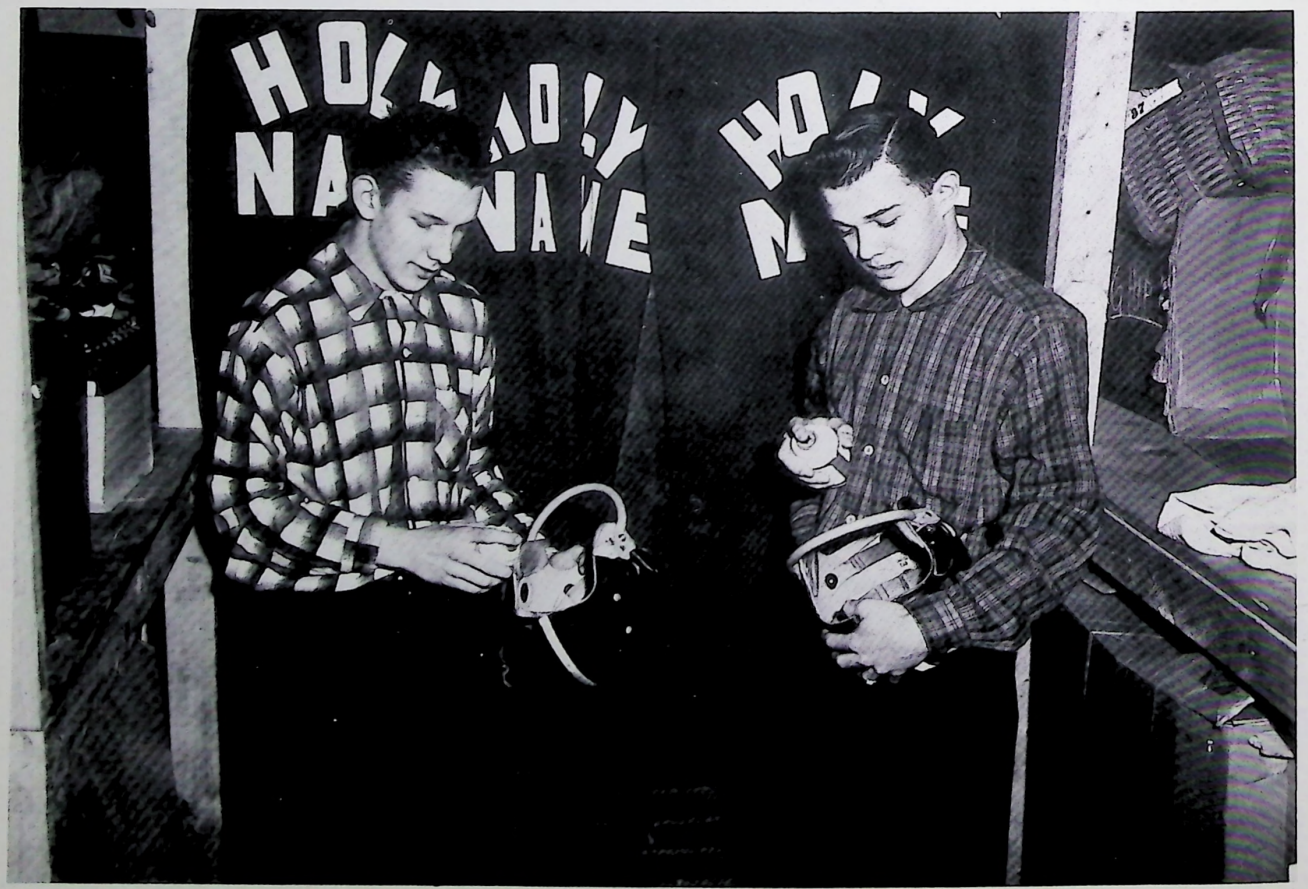
Student Managers Prepared for the Opener



Thomas Berger, Richard Donovan

Gerald Karlovic, David Kiscoe, John Vigliotti, Gerald Primer, Dan Fisher and Robert Langlotz.

An important factor in any Holy Name game are the spirited cheerleaders who displayed plenty of pep at all HN games and weekly rallies.

Under the direction of Miss Monica Cesar and the leadership of John Vigliotti, these boys not only gave the team spirit but also they led the moral backing of the entire student body.

To be a cheerleader, at Holy Name, a boy must be peppy and spirited. He must be a better than average student and of good moral and spiritual character.

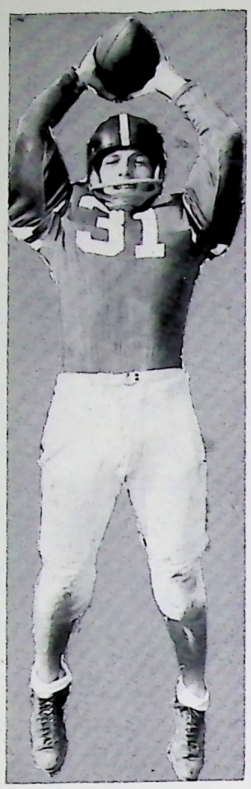
Even The Freshman Get The Fever . . .

Future gridders of '60, under the leadership of Coach Marlo Termini and Coach Jack Richardson compiled a record of nine victories and eight defeats showing promise for the future.

FIRST ROW: R. Harrison, M. Nawaleniec, R. Jankowski, A. Zucco, A. Rossi, J. Benda, R. Franz.
SECOND ROW: D. Ginley, F. Sabetta, J. Dudziak, S. Popek, L. Kocisko, R. Conroy, R. Sikerica, T. Plautz, Coach Marlo Termini.

THIRD ROW: Coach Jack Richardson, G. Oblak, G. Jankowski, J. Kosiba, L. Stevens, P. Neylon, R. Demagall, R. Califra, R. Bradia, sophomore managers J. McHale, M. Graziadei.

Returning Lettermen...



Tom Wojciak

Tom Wojciak was switched from quarterback to end, in his last year. On defense, Tom played as a linebacker because of his agility.

Jim Blumena

Jim Blumena played the guard position for four years in high school. He was known for his good pass blocking. Jim knew how to play the game.

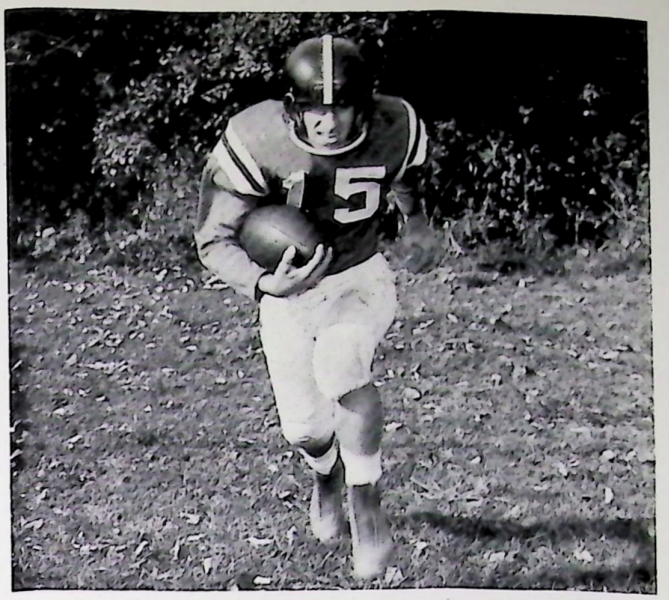
Jim Milan

For two years the right guard position was filled by Jim Milan. Jim was used alternately to bring in the next proceeding play. "It is just as important to execute the right play" says Jim, "and more important to rack them."

Andy Nawaleniec

Andy sat out half of the season because of a broken leg received in the South game. This was the second year, in a row, in which he broke his leg. Before this mishap, Andy was the boy with dynamite in his legs. Tackling him was like jumping in front of a truck.

..Looked Like This



Ed Tracy

Playing tackle both on defense and offense, Ed Tracy says that the play he liked best was a wedge through his tackle position. On defense, Ed was like "Wildfire" crushing through the line.

Len Pikus

One of the fastest men on the football team was Len Pikus. Holding two track records, when "Lightning" Len would break into the open, the score was sure to change. Pikus was the second highest scorer on the '56 squad.

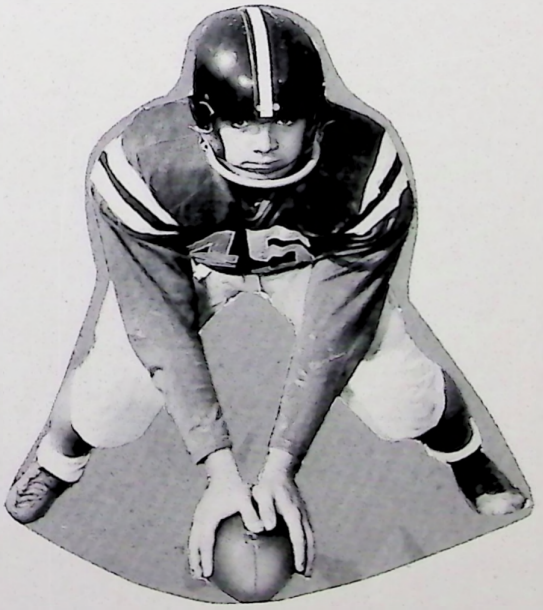
George Kriak

George Kriak was known as a great worker on the team. For extra yardage or for the long pass, George was called in. In the St. Ignatius game, George suffered a broken collar bone. Despite the injury, which put him out of the game for the rest of the season, George made the "Press All-West Senate", the "News Dream Team," and was the highest scorer on the '56 football squad.

Stanley Kosiba

Stanley Kosiba was a 60-minute man for the Namers playing both offense and defense.

His alertness let very few ball carriers get by him. He was a fine lineman.



The Band Practiced Daily....

Holy Name Band follows the football team. They begin to practice when the first call for football practice sounds. Being a marching band,

And Welcomed the Season

some time must be spent in learning the art of marching and playing. The Band is rated as one of the best in the City. Namers hail it as "the Best!"

(a) Attempting to stop a Maple Heights Mustang are Al Mitermiler, #11, and George Brzozowski, #33.

Maple Heights

Holy Name opened their '56 football season with an independent clash against Maple Heights, September 14, at Bedford Stadium. Maple Heights had been co-champions in their league for the '55 season.

After only a few seconds of play Maple Heights Mustangs scored a touchdown and were off, scoring twice by the end of the first half. At that point, the score stood 20-0 in favor of Maple Heights.

The second half was entirely different. The Namers held the Mustangs scoreless and managed to score on a two-yard plunge by halfback Lenny Pikus.

The Namers were headed for a second touchdown only to have time run out, Maple Heights winning, 20-6.

Lorain-St. Mary

A second-half rally by the Irish of Lorain-St. Mary's provided the defending district champs with a 12-6 upset over the favored Irish of Holy Name, on September 22.

The Namers opened the game by driving 76 yards in eight plays to rack up the only touchdown of the first period. The Irish, of Lorain, tallied with an early second quarter T.D. The Namers then held the onrushing line of the Irish deadlock until the fourth quarter. A momentary opening in the line, gave St. Mary's what proved to be the winning touchdown. Holy Name then started and pushed forward to the 45-yard line of St. Mary's when the game ended 12-6.

(c) Tackling a Maple Heights Mustang are Dennis Mahoney and Al Mitermiler, No. 11. Also rushing the play are Namers Robert Hogue, #34, and Steve Drvenkar, #48.

Lincoln

Behind George Kriak and Al Mitermiller, a determined Namer squad ripped a stubborn Lincoln High eleven at West Tech Field 27-6. The September 29 game was the Senate Opener. Two first quarter interceptions proved to be a decisive factor in the victory.

Quarter-back Al Mitermiller picked off a President's aerial and raced 48 yards for Holy Name's first 6 pointer. Later, Len Pikus outran Lincoln defenders after intercepting another pass and racked up a second Namer touchdown.

With the guarding of Ed Tracy and Jim Blumena, Pikus was able to score twice; once on a 10-yard burst and once on a short end run. He finished the evening with a total of 18 points, the highest total completed by a Holy Name player in a single game.

Points after touchdowns were made by Dennis Galayda, Leonard Pikus, and Tom Zingale.

West High

It was a cold misty October night, October 6, when the Holy Name Green Wave met the West High Cowboys.

Holy Name tallied first on a four-yard run around end by halfback Lenny Pikus in the first quarter. The second quarter found West High tying the score. The first half ended in a 6-6 tie.

There was little action for either team in the third quarter, as playing conditions grew worse. The Namers fought desperately to hold the Cowboys, but with only 19 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter West scored on a desperation run from within the H.N. fifteen-yard line. Time ran out, West winning 12-6.

St. Ignatius

Holy Name met a strong St. Ignatius eleven at West Tech Field, October 13. The game was played mostly by sophomores and juniors due to senior injuries. The final score was 35-0. This ran Ignatius' string of victories to five.

The line-play was hard throughout the game from tackle to tackle. There was no doubt in the minds of the fans that the Namers wanted to win this one. Now the H.N. record stood at one victory and two losses.

South

The high flying South High Flyers won the coveted Pig Iron trophy October 19, by overcoming a stubborn Namer defense 21-0. Lack of a potent offense against a senate title contender were the factors contributing to Holy Name's third Senate defeat.

Capable line-backing by Ed Tracy and Tom Wojciak made the going rough for South High backs, while Len Pikus and Bob Hogue made some progress through the Flyers' line. Paul Schosowski and Roger Klicman were Flyer standouts in the game.

The trophy, placed annually in the school of the winner, has been awarded to Holy Name 19 times while South High has now held it 6 times.

West Tech

Things were not too bright for the Holy Name eleven, October 27, when they met a determined group of West Tech Warriors at West Tech Field. The game ended 34-6.

But there was really a bright spot in the game for the Namers, this being a brilliant run by Dennis Mahoney. The junior took a punt return on his own twenty yard line and raced eighty yards for the Namers' lone score. This was the longest run of the season for any Namer.

John Marshall

"A lawyer's defense is his bread and butter," and this was the story at West Tech Field, November 2, as the John Marshall Lawyers edged the Big Green 7-6.

The Lawyers scored first by driving home a touchdown in the first quarter. It was 7-0 as a very heavy fog brought visibility down to almost zero. Late in the last quarter Al Mitermiller plunged in from the 2-yard line to make the score 7-6. Al then threw a short jump pass to Tom Fath but a Marshall defender knocked the ball from Tom's hands. The score ended 12-6.

Rhodes

On a bright, sunshiny day, November 10, the football season came to an abrupt and disappointing end with a 21-7 loss to Rhodes High School.

The game, closer than might indicate, completed the Senate schedule and brought the record to one victory and eight defeats for the 1956 season.

Seniors Stanley Kosiba, Edward Tracy, Jim Blumena, Tom Wojciak, George Kriak, Andy Nawalenic, Roger Dempsey, Jim Milan, Jim O'Neil and Len Pikus wore the colors of the "Big Green" for the last time.

(b) Plunging into a Maple Heights tackler is Tom Wojciak after catching a pass. Attempting to block the defender are Al Mitermiler, #11, and guard Jim Milan, #35.

Eight Seniors Make

Dennis Kowalski

In his second year on the Varsity, Dennis Kowalski had a good season. With 105 points, and a 5.3 average, is this guard's senior record.

In foul shooting, his percentage was second only to Jerry Galicki.

Larry Kaspar

Larry Kaspar, in his first full season in Varsity basketball, enjoyed a successful year. He scored 162 points for an 8.2 average. This puts Larry, third highest on the Namer squad.

Larry was one of the mainstays of the team and his "clutch" play helped the Namers to many victories.

John Driscoll

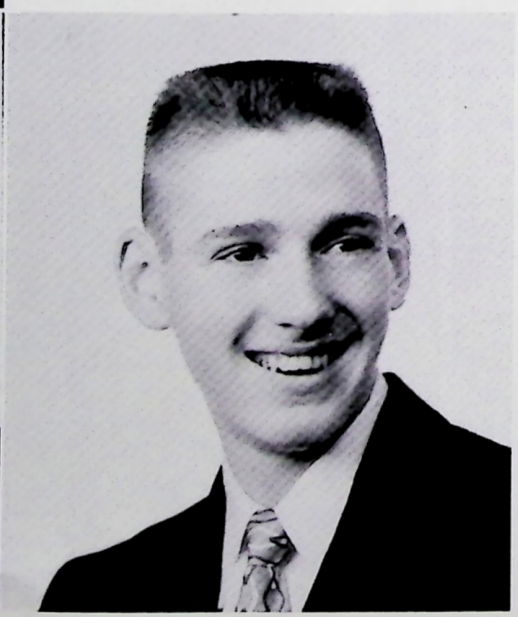
John Driscoll was an excellent ball handler. He was a good man to have in reserve. John played the entire season on the second team but he managed to score 11 points for his team's winnings.

John was a cool-headed player and this ability was needed as the basketball season headed for the tournament.

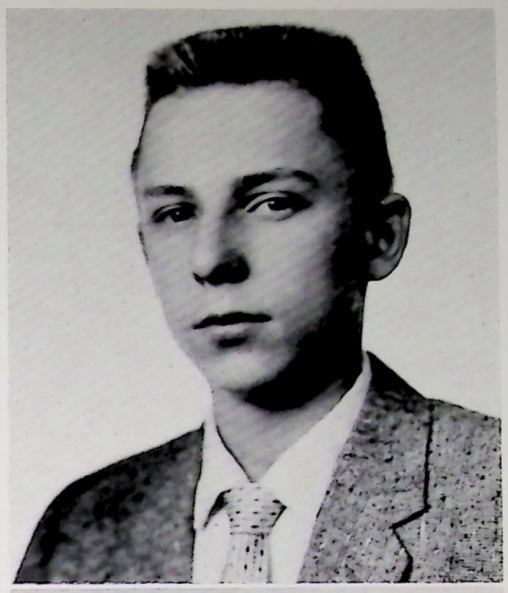
Robert Schustrich

Bob came through with a 99 point record for a 5 point average. As the season progressed, he moved up in the squad and made 15 points against Lincoln. The following week, he connected for 11 points.

In Schustrich, Namers had one of the better rebounders on the team.



Sports History



Jerry Galicki

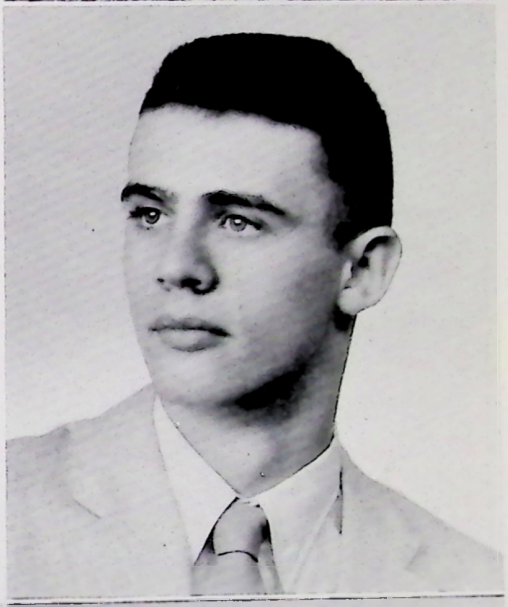
Jerry was the Key man in the Namers' lineup scoring 431 points for a 21.5 season's average. Jerry was the best rebounder on the team, with a score of 142.

He was chosen for the "Catholic Universe Bulletin All Catholic Team," the "Press All Scholastic," and the "News Second Team". He also received a trophy for his sportsmanlike play in the Parma AA Sectional tournament.

Larry Clark

Larry Clark, playing his first full season under Coach Termini, had a good season.

He scored 24 points during the season, despite his position on the second string. Larry's height, 6'4" was to his advantage and he used this ability when he got on the court.



Don Cozzens

Don played on the second team throughout the season. However, he showed that he could score with authority, when given a chance. Don emphasized this ability in the East Tech game. He scored 7 points in the last quarter of this tournament game which wrote "finis" to high school basketball for these 8 senior players.

Ron Zurilla

Ron was the second highest scorer in the Namer's lineup, scoring 174 points for an 8.5 average. In addition to giving the Namers offensive strength, he played a good defensive game.

Ron's greatest contribution was helping the team on rebounds.

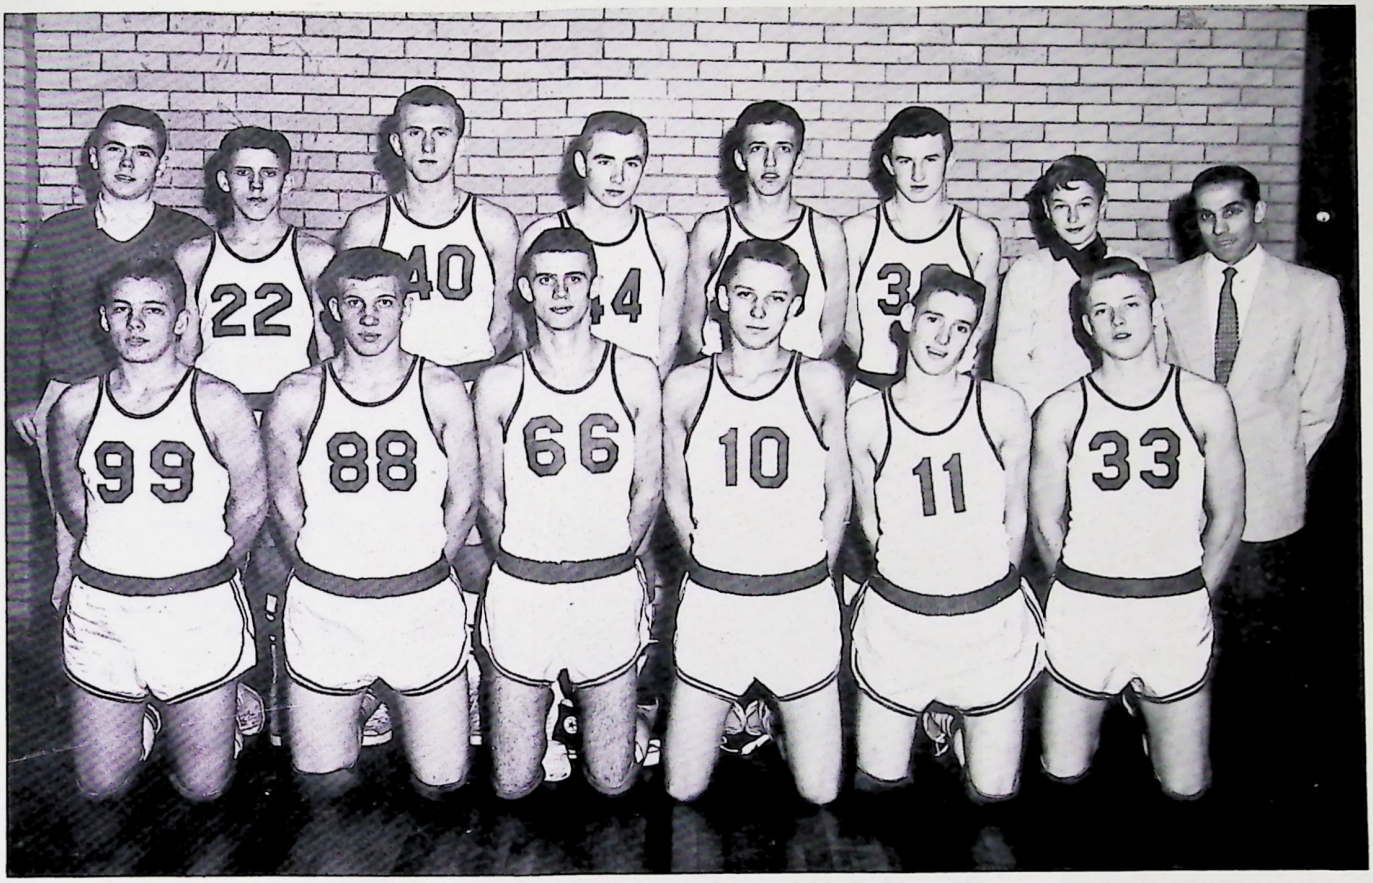
Meet the Varsity in Action



Holy Name Varsity

KNEELING: Jack Tomasewski, Ron Zurilla, Larry Clark, Jerry Galicki, Robert Schustrich, Tom Fath. STANDING: Manager Jack McHale, Jack Stulak, Don Cozzens, Dennis Kowalski, Larry Kaspar, John Driscoll, Manager Bill Dresen, and Coach Marlo Termini.

This is the group of boys who represented Holy Name on the basketball court during the current season.

Numbers bring certain names into prominence as the story is told. However, if every man did not "play his part" there could not be that fine team spirit and co-operation which made the Namer team outstanding during the season and the tournament.

A fine Coach, a fine team!

Lil' Davids' Game by Game Account

Holy Name vs East Tech

Holy Name's varsity basketball team opened up the 1956-1957 season Nov. 24 against East Tech with a 58-56 loss in a "sudden death" overtime. The Namers, although outheighted, played the game on even terms throughout and with a few breaks the score could have been reversed.

Holy Name vs Lincoln

The Namers opened their senate season by overwhelming the Lincoln President 61-27. It was now clear that Holy Name's great center 6' 3" Jerry Galicki was well on his way to a good season for the Namers as he scored 23 points.

Holy Name vs West High

A last minute rally by the West High Cowboys deprived Holy Name of its second victory as they defeated the Namers 55-52, Dec. 7. The closely fought game, played at West, instead was Holy Name's second defeat.

The lead seesawed throughout the game. With the score 51-52 in favor of Holy Name, a jump ball was called when Larry Kaspar was backed up against the court boundary, severely pressed by West guards.

West High won the jump and quickly deposited two field goals ending the game 55-52.

Holy Name vs St. Ignatius

The Green Wave played for the first time in the new St. Ignatius gym Dec. 7 only to be defeated 68-44. Namers fought hard and played a good game considering the Wildcats' height and experience. Jerry Galicki led the Namers with 26 points.

Holy Name vs South

The Flyers, sparked by 6' 9" Fred Sawyer, defeated an ambitious Namer five Dec. 14, by a 56-42 score. The once-defeated Flyers, with title intentions, overcame a possession ballgame and it looked like they were well on their way to championship berth. The game was played at John Adams, a neutral gymnasium.

Holy Name vs West Tech

The Namers were defeated Dec. 21 in the first of their two Senate meetings with West Tech 57 to 46. HN's attack was led by Jerry Galicki who scored 19 points and seconded by Dennis Kowalski's 8. However, the Namers were not able to overcome the Warriors and turn the tide to victory.

Holy Name vs Akron St. Mary

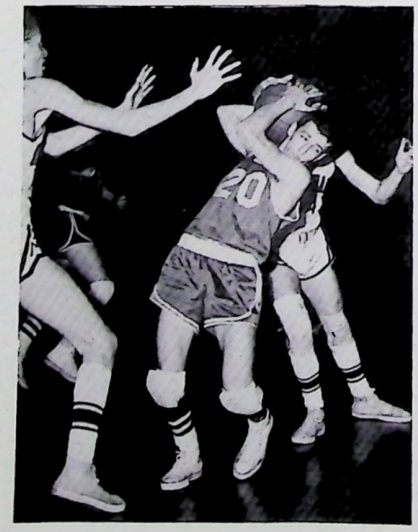
The "Green Wave" started a new rivalry December 29 with the opposition being Akron St. Mary. But the opposition was too tough as the Namers lost 62-54. The Namers, being behind by ten points at half-time came out all fired up for the third quarter but all to no avail as the Akronites had too many guns for the scrappy Namers. Jerry Galicki led both teams with 33 points, scored mostly on the jump-shots.

Holy Name vs John Marshall

The Namers were in fine form as they upset the highly favored Lawyers 53-52 in an overtime Jan. 4. This game, the best played thus far this year, was close throughout with a 50-50 tie at the end of regulation play. Then Larry Kaspar scored two points and Dennis Kowalski followed with one to win for the Namers the second game this season.

I, Jerry Galicki attempts to outjump Ken Hoffman.

II, Larry Kaspar tries to hold on to a loose ball.



III, A John Marshall player attempts to block Kaspar's shot.

of Courtly Play on the Hardwood.

Holy Name vs Rhodes

The Green Wave attained their fourth victory of the campaign by defeating Rhodes High 68-48 Jan. 11. The Namers were now half way through the season and had attained an even record of 4 victories and 4 defeats. This was very good for the Namers were now in fourth place.

Lincoln vs Holy Name

Behind Bob Schustrich's 15 points an aggressive Namer varsity defeated Lincoln High School 58-49 at Lincoln January 12. After trailing throughout the first half the Namers took charge in the third period, leading 40-38 at its end.

Further padding was added to the lead in the fourth quarter. Ron Zurilla, Dennis Kowalski, and Jerry Galicki all hit in double figures while John Tomasewski, a sophomore, contributed 4 points.

Holy Name vs West High

Luck was not with the Namers on January 18, even with Jerry Galicki's 27 points and Bob Schustrich's 11. West High proved too much for the team as they suffered a 68-62 defeat. The Namers showed good team work.

Holy Name vs South

Holy Name was defeated by South 86-63 even though Jerry Galicki led the Namers with 24 points on January 25. This was the second time Holy Name gave way to South and the reason was 6' 9" Fred Sawyer who made his farewell appearance in the Senate.

The Namers played the first half fairly close 30-39 but were unable to gain a lead in the third and fourth quarters as South scored 47 to Holy Name's 33 points.

Holy Name vs Ignatius

Overwhelming height, terrific speed, and rebound control was too much for a peppy Namer varsity to overcome as they bowed to Ignatius 90 to 65 at South, January 26.

Holy Name vs West Tech

Holy Name defeated the West Tech Warriors February 1 by the score of 56-38. The Namers' scoring attack again was led by Jerry Galicki followed closely by Ron Zurilla and Larry Kaspar.

Holy Name vs John Marshall

John Marshall's Lawyers defeated the Big Green February 8 in overtime 64 to 63. The first quarter ended in a 12-12 deadlock. Marshall held period leads of 24-21 and 42-41 before the Big Green finally caught up to end regular game play 59-59.

The Lawyer's, led by Gene Ricchetti, who had 20 points, scored 5 points to Holy Name's 4 to end th hard fought contest 64-63. Jerry Galicki paced both teams with 29 points, while three other Namers, Dennis Kowalski, Ron Zurilla, and Larry Kaspar hit in double figures. This was the third straight game played between John Marshall and Holy Name decided by one point.

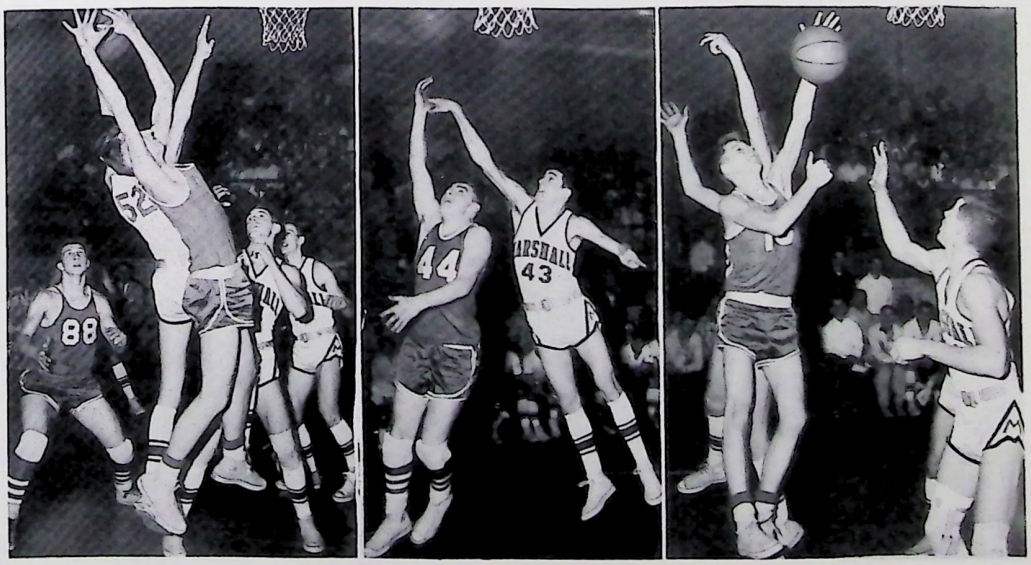
Holy Name vs Rhodes

Holy Name had little trouble getting their sixth victory as they defeated Rhodes' Rams 68-41. Namers led throughout the game and were ahead 26-12 at the half. Jerry Galicki scored 22, Ron Zurilla 14, and Larry Kaspar and Larry Clark 10 points each. HN's rebounding helped them control the ball.

I, Jerry Galicki jumps for a rebound while #88 forward Ronald Zurilla looks on.

II, Dennis Kowalski shoots a layup while a Marshall defender tries to block it.

III, An attempted shot is missed by Jerry Galicki as he gets his own rebound.



Namers Capture Trophies

Varsity members meet in the Holy Name Gym to show the trophy which they won at the Parma Sectional Tournament. KNEELING: Don Cozzens, Jack Stulak, Dennis Kowalski, Larry Kaspar, John Driscoll, Jack Tomasewski. STANDING: Thomas Fath, Ron Zurilla, Coach Termini, Jerry Galicki, Father Hughes, Larry Clark, and Robert Schustrich.

Holy Name vs South

Holy Name beat South 47-44 in the first game of the "Parma Tourney" on Feb. 23 as Jerry Galicki led both teams with 19 points. Although the Namers were three points behind the Flyers at the half they steadily gained lost ground in the third and last quarters. They reversed last year's outcome when the Namers defeated South in the two Senate games only to be defeated in the first game of the Tournament.

Holy Name vs Bedford

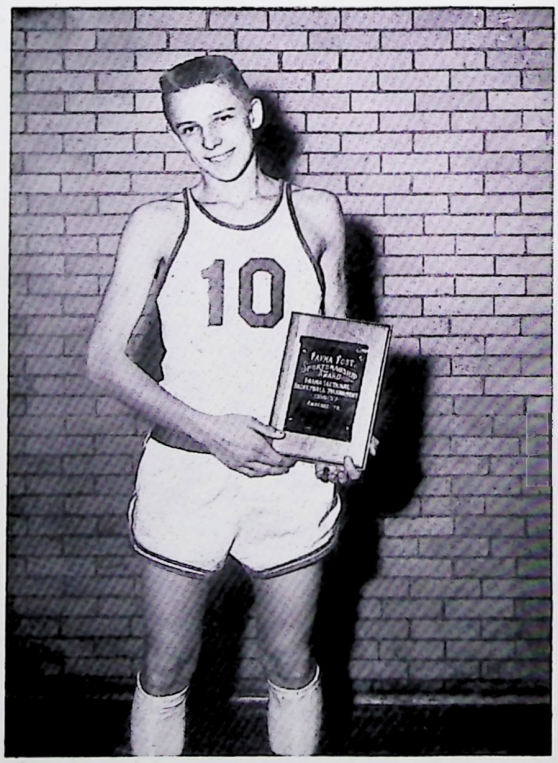
In the second game of tournament play on March 1, Holy Name faced the Bedford Bearcats. The Green Wave defeated the Greater Cleveland Conference Champions 54-48. Winning this game earned Holy Name a trophy for being Champions in the Parma Sectional Tournament. This win also advanced them to the St. Ignatius sectional tournament.

Holy Name vs John Adams

Holy Name defeated John Adams 50-41 in the third tournament game March 5 when three Namers hit double figures. The Namers, behind at the half 22-21 pulled ahead late in the third quarter when Ron Zurilla's two free throws broke the 31-31 tie. They stayed in the lead to end the game with a nine point lead. Jerry Galicki collected 17 points, Ron Zurilla 15, and Dennis Kowalski 12.

Holy Name vs East Tech

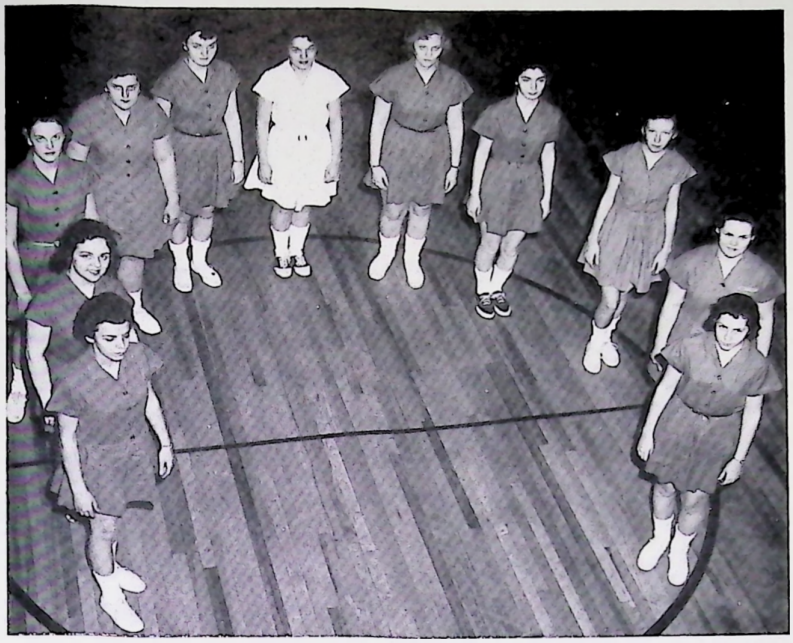
The speed of the taller East Tech Scarabs was the main factor which lead to the 69 to 49 defeat suffered by Holy Name March 7, in the last tournament game in which the Namers were to participate for the season. Although Jerry Galicki collected 28 points the Scarabs' "fast break", gave East Tech an early lead which they never relinquished.



Displaying the trophy which he won at the Parma Sectional Tournament is Jerry Galicki, Holy Name center.

This award is the only recognition given to a single player during the Sectional Tournament. About thirteen teams played in this tournament.

Girls' Physical Education Classes



Girls' physical education classes, under the direction of Miss Monica Cesar, learned the rules for playing volleyball during the first semester. In the second semester they followed the rules of basketball as vigorously as they had their first semester assignment.

Between these two sports they were interested in warming up exercises and learning important rules for health and good grooming.

M. Celinski, J. McKeon, I. Shuster, E. Pigat, P. Conroy, B. Brickman, C. Jastrzembski, E. Jerka, S. Pogowski, C. O'Brien, J. Szabo.

Girls of the physical education classes learn to display their abilities for leadership by joining the Gym Leaders Association.

After several months of probation as Dinks they are finally received into the Association. Then they are leaders in their groups.

In this way the girls receive an opportunity to work with others and to help others to do what they know is the thing to do.

FIRST ROW: Gerry Houdek, Janet Daly, Patricia Matlin, Susan Kosiba, Barbara Brinkman.
SECOND ROW: Lynn Yeskulski, Barbara Shipkosky, Barbara Bonsky, Patricia Cloonan, Susan Sejhar, Sylvia Urbanowicz, Louise Smiar.

Hail, Holy Queen!

Mother of Mercy,—

Our Life, Our Sweetness, and our Hope! . . . .

During our senior year we have thought about the Blessed Virgin as "Our Life, Our Sweetness, and Our Hope." As we leave the portals of Holy Name we go forth under His Name, with the strength of His Name and the aspirations which the Holy Name of Jesus should inspire.

With Jesus, we find Mary and we hope and pray that our vocation in life will lead us onward to

Our Eternal Commencement

Thanks, Friends!

The Staff of the yearbook wishes to give special thanks to the following:
Monsignor McDonough, for his interest and encouragement.
Sister Francis Anna and the members of the Faculty.
Mr. Lester O. Kisabeth and Miss Mary Hill of the Gray Printing Company.
Miss Fergus and the members of the Chesshire Studio.
Mr. John Alden of the S. K. Smith Company.
May God bless you all and keep you close to Him!
